

Darcy Harrod

An avid art lover and collector, Darcy Harrod was born and raised in Fairbanks, Alaska. She has worked as a graphic designer for the UAF Community and Technical College since 2005 and most recently as the interim marketing manager. She volunteers her time with the Fairbanks Arts Association and the Golden Retriever Rescue of Fairbanks as needed. Darcy received her bachelor of arts degree in Art with a emphasis in Computer Art from the University of Alaska Fairbanks. Her designs have won several awards to include;

Public Relations Society of America-Alaska Chapter
2010

- 2nd Place Award of Excellence: General Brochure
- 2nd Place Award of Excellence: External Publication

2011

- 1st Place Award of Excellence: External Publication
- 2nd Place Award of Excellence: General Brochure
- 3rd Place Award of Excellence: Special Printed Promotional Material

National Council for Marketing and Public Relations
District 7

2011

- Gold Medallion: General Brochure
- Silver Award: Publication Series

She is currently pursuing her Master of Science in Integrated Marketing Communications from West Virginia University