10th Annual ASAA/Alaska Airlines Statewide High School Poster Contest promotes participation in interscholastic sports and activities

Results are in for the 2013 ASAA/Alaska Airlines Interscholastic Poster Contest, which asked teenagers to help encourage healthy living through the activities offered through Alaska's high schools. The contest – the tenth annual – offers a forum for student-artists to showcase their talent, while earning an opportunity to win several great prizes, including the grand prize – two round-trip Alaska Airlines tickets.

Submissions were judged in two areas:

1. Visual artwork designed to capture the attention of high school students and promote healthy living.
2. A catchy phrase, title or quote (referenced) not over 25 words that accompanies and complements the artwork.

Originality, creativity and overall effectiveness were considered in judging these elements.

(Photos of these entries will be posted on ASAA's web site at www.asaa.org):

- First place: Casey Hansen, a senior at Thunder Mt. High School
- Second place: Doborah Bitanga, a sophomore at Kodiak High School.
- Third place: Caitlin Dougal, a freshman at Kotzebue High School.
- Fourth place: Sarah Lockett, a senior at Ben Eielson High School.

Thank you for your entries. I look forward to seeing the artistically designed posters for next year. If you have any comments or concerns please contact me at Deanna @asaa.org
