Sportsmanship Creed

"This contest is being played under the authority of the Alaska School Activities Association. ASAA rules provide for fair play and good sportsmanship among athletes and coaches. Since booing and jeering do not support anyone, we expect fans to be positive in supporting their favorite team with encouraging comments and cheers. Please refrain from words or actions that would reflect negatively on your school and team. In other words, BE A FAN...NOT A FANATIC."

Teller junior earns first-team honors for second straight year

By Jeremiah Bartz
Frontiersman.com

Teller head coach Eric Boring describes Lindsay Weyanna as a point-center. It's not something you'll often find at larger schools in Alaska. But for a 1A program, it can be a dominant combination. Weyanna has established herself as one of the top players at the 1A level. And she's only a junior.

Weyanna has been named to the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches 1A Girls All-State first-team for the second straight year.

"She's the team's strongest ball handler and she is our best player in the post," Boring said recently.

Boring said the 5-foot-8 junior stands out across the court for his squad.

"Lindsay is an extremely aggressive player. She doesn't shy away from contact on either end of the court. She boxes out well on defense and goes to the free throw line a lot on offense," Boring said.

Weyanna averages a double-double for her team, with team-high 19 points and 10 rebounds per contest. She's a force inside, but has also expanded her game to the perimeter.

"Lindsay has a big impact on the game. She is consistently drawing double and triple team when she goes to the basket," Boring said. "She can also step out and hit threes."

Boring said Weyanna has been active in volleyball in the past, but opted to focus on basketball, and also praised her as a person

"Lindsay is a great kid off the court. She is always on the honor roll and is a great role model for the younger kids in the community," Boring said.

Over HALF of all teen driving deaths involve alcohol! Here are three sobering facts you will never see in a beer commercial:

- 80% of alcohol-related fatalities are caused by beer consumption
- 11,769 impaired drivers DIED in 2009, over 700,000 injured.
- ONE beer is the equivalent of a shot of 80 proof hard liquor.

Scammon Bay junior makes a difference in the paint

By Jeremiah Bartz
Frontiersman.com

Jeremy Brink doesn't just occupy space inside, Scammon Bay head coach Harley Sundown said, Brink can change the game. After leading Scammon Bay to the Yukon-Delta title and another trip to state, Brink, a Scammon Bay junior, has been named first-team on the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches 1A Boys All-State Team.

"His presence is such a difference," Sundown said recently.

Brink, standing at 6-foot-3, has tremendous reach with his wingspan, Sundown said, and has established himself as a rebounding machine. Brink entered the 2018 1A state tourney averaging 12.7 rebounds per game. He has 305 total rebounds this year, which includes a season-high 18 during a win over Russian Mission. Brink has 10 or more rebounds in 15 games this season.

Sundown said Brink has been good on the offensive glass.

"A lot of his points come off rebounds," Sundown said.

Brink is also averaging 10.5 points per game. But it's the defense and rebounding that really stands out currently in his game, Sundown said.

"Teams don't like to penetrate," Sundown said. "He defends the paint pretty well."

On the offensive side, Sundown said Brink's play in the low post opens up Scammon Bay's inside-outside game.

"Teams collapse on him," Sundown said.

And that opens up opportunities for Brink's teammates, Sundown said.

Just a junior, Sundown said, Brink is still growing as a player.

Literally and figuratively.

Sundown also praised Brink off the court.

"He's a real good student as well as a very good community member in our village," Sundown said. "He doesn't do anything that's at-risk behavior. He's very respectful. He's very talkative, a really well-rounded student."

After filling the void left by 2017 state player of the year, Bristol Bay guard named 2A's best in 2018

By Jeremiah Bartz
 Frontiersman.com

Last season, the Bristol Bay Angels earned the 2A girls state title in dramatic fashion. But after winning their first state crown since 2015, the Angels had to figure out how to fill the void left by graduated seniors Rylie Lyon, the 2017 state player of the year, and Anna Hansen, another standout.

When the Angels hit the court for the 2017-18 season it was time for Anna Hansen's younger sister, Sharon, to step up.

Sharon Hansen delivered, and now she has been recognized for her efforts. The junior has been named the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches 2A Girls State Player of the Year.

"To fill in for Rylie and Anna, there was a lot of pressure on her," Bristol Bay head coach Heath Lyon said recently. "She handled the pressure well."

Lyon said Hansen, who was key in Bristol Bay's run to the 2017 state title, leads by example.

"Not really by saying, it's by doing," Lyon said. Even though she's probably better suited as a shooting guard, Lyon played her at the point during the season, and Hansen stepped up to provide a need for the team, Lyon said.

"She'll do anything to win," Lyon said. "She has a lot of drive. She's a competitor."

Hansen is also a defensive standout.

"She's a stopper. She competes for everything," Lyon said.

Lyon said the work ethic and attention Hansen gives to the sport is what really stands out.

"My biggest thing with her, I love her as a competitor," Lyon said. "The best thing I can say about her is she's really coachable."

Lyon said Hansen has competed in swimming and volleyball in the past, but her focus in athletics is on the sport of basketball.

"She's one of the girls who wants to be in the gym," Lyon said.

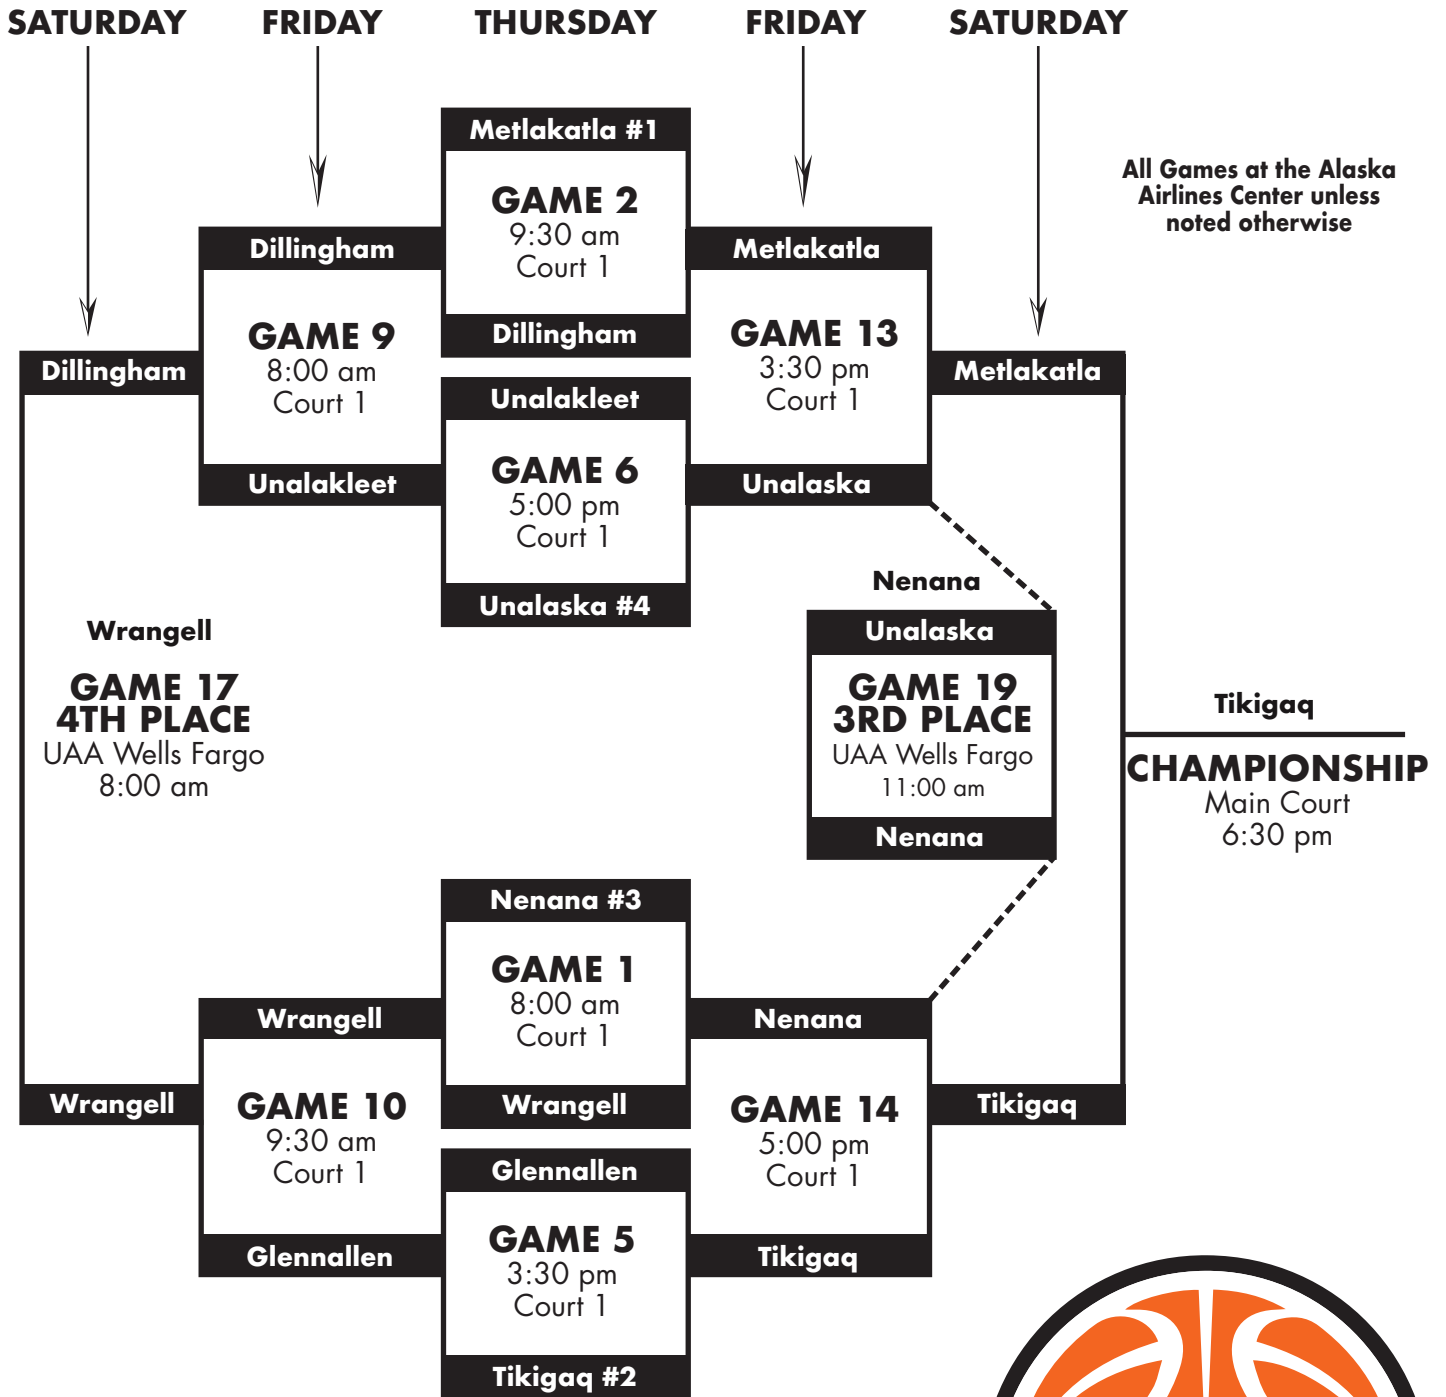

Off the court, Lyon said Hansen excels in the classroom.

"She's a good student," Lyon said.

Overall, Lyon said Hansen sets a good example. "I wish I could have five of her on the court," Lyon said.

NORTH SLOPE CHAMPIONS AGAINST TOBACCO USE AND ALCOHOL ABUSE

The Barrow Whaler basketball teams, football team and volleyball team, along with the Tikiqqaq Harpoonerettes basketball team have joined the North Slope Borough's Prevention Program to become proud tobacco and alcohol abuse prevention champions of the North Slope. - Cigarettes, chewing and e-cigarettes are all dangerous to your health.
- Alcohol abuse contributes to many injuries, violence and health issues our communities face, be a part of the solution and not the problem.
- 78% of Alaskan teens don't drink!

Congratulations to all the North Slope sports teams that have worked their way to state.

Unalaska junior tabbed 2A's top player

By Jeremiah Bartz
Frontiersman.com

With a unique combination of size, speed, strength and skill unique to small schools basketball in Alaska, Unalaska head coach Kent Russell believes Raiders junior Trevor Wilson is among the best in his class.

"No doubt Trevor is one of the top players in the state, 2A for sure," Russell said recently.

Russell's colleagues agree.

Wilson has been named the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches 2A Boys Player of the Year.

Wilson, who helped Unalaska earn a 2A state title as a freshman, was also named first-team all-state for the second consecutive year.

"Basketball-wise, he has unique guard skills," Russell said.

Russell said Wilson handles the ball against defensive pressure, can shoot and attack the basket, and often is tasked with defending the opponent's top player.

"He carries a big load. We put a lot on him," Russell said.

Wilson is also difficult to defend, Russell said.

"He's a tough matchup for people," Russell said of the 6-foot-1, 190-pound guard. "Most of the time, guys guarding him are either too small or too slow."

Wilson is averaging 15 points, six rebounds and five assists as a junior.

But Wilson also stands out off the court, Russell said.

"He's a great kid. He's a 4.0 student, one of the hardest working kids I've ever coached," Russell said.
