Welcome to the 2019 DDF State

On behalf of the Alaska School Activities Association (ASAA) Board of Directors and ASAA's corporate partners, welcome to the 2019 ASAA/First National Bank Alaska Drama Debate & Forensics State Championships! To the students, we applaud your dedication to doing your best for yourself and for your school. To the music teachers, conductors, accompanists, counselors and parents, thank you for continuing to support interscholastic sports and activities. And to the spectators, we appreciate your being part of this statewide musical event.

LINCOLN-DOUGLAS DEBATE

Format includes one 6-minute affirmative constructive, one 7-minute negative constructive, two 3-minute cross-examinations, one 4-minute affirmative rebuttal, one 6-minute negative rebuttal and one 3-minute affirmative rebuttal. The NSDA value topic for that time period is used.

POLICY DEBATE

Oregon-Oxford cross examination debate format includes four 8-minute constructive cases, four 3-minute cross-examinations, and four 5-minute individual rebuttals. The national high school debate topic will be used.

PUBLIC FORUM DEBATE

Public Forum Debate format includes four 4-minute constructive speeches, three 3-minute crossfires, two 2-minute summaries, and two 2-minute final focuses. The NSDA public forum debate topic for that time period is used.

NOTE: At the 2018 Alaska DDF Coaches Association meeting, it was decided that for the 2018-2019 school year Public Forum Debate speech times would be extended by one minute (i.e. 5-minute constructive speeches, 3-minute summary and final focuses).

DUET ACTING

Ten minutes maximum. Two people only. It must be a cutting from a play or screen play. Blocking is necessary. A minimum of props is allowed, but no costumes or makeup may be used. One table and two chairs must be provided for the actors. Each performer in an acting event must maintain portrayal of only one character, who may suggest other characters within the narrative.

PANTOMIME

Eight minutes maximum. Prepared presentation may include recorded instrumental music but no other sound effects or vocalization. Must not be an impersonation. Makeup and costuming are allowed, but not required. One chair per performer is the only prop allowed.

READERS' THEATRE

Twelve minutes maximum. A group presentation in which an open script must be used, either in hand or on a lectern. Selections must be cuttings from published printed novels, short stories, plays, screen plays or poetry. Recorded material that is not printed and published is not an acceptable source. A readers' theater script may be a compilation of cuttings from multiple sources.

Adaptations may be for the purpose of continuity only. During the presentation the group must name the author and source from which the cutting was made.

Only tournament attire is allowed. Different styles exist for Readers' Theater. Do not penalize competitors for their choice of presentation style. Readers may move no further than three feet from their original position. Readers may not touch each other. Sound effects are limited to those sounds that performers may make with their own bodies, scripts or stands. No props may be used.

SOLO ACTING

Eight minutes maximum. It must be a cutting from a play, screen play, or performance poetry. Blocking is necessary. A minimum of props is allowed, but no costumes or makeup may be used. One table and one chair must be provided for the actor. Each performer in an acting event must maintain portrayal of only one character, who may suggest other characters within the narrative.

DRAMATIC INTERPRETATION

Ten minutes maximum. Selections must be cuttings from published printed novels, short stories, plays, poetry, or a digital publication that meets the already established NSDA Online Publications Rubric. If a selection does not meet the established Rubric, coaches may request an evaluation of the piece by the Rules Committee. Recorded material that is not printed and published is not an acceptable source. Adaptations may be for the purpose of continuity only. Monologues are acceptable. A cutting must be from a single source.

During the presentation the contestant must name the author and source from which the cutting was made.

The presentation is memorized and no book or manuscript may be read in the performance. No physical objects or costumes may be used. Actors will utilize stationary blocking to enhance the interpretation. They may take a single step in any direction as long as they stay within an imaginary 3 x 3 foot box during the entire interpretation.

DUO INTERPRETATION

Ten minutes maximum. Two person performance. Selections used in the contest shall be cuttings from published printed novels, short stories, plays, poetry, or a digital publication that meets the already established NSDA Online Publications Rubric. If a selection does not meet the established Rubric, coaches may request an evaluation of the piece by the Rules Committee. Recorded material that is not printed and published is not an acceptable source. Adaptations may be for the purpose of continuity only. A cutting must be from a single source. During the presentation the contestant must name the author and source from which the cutting was made.

The presentation is memorized and no book or manuscript may be read in the performance. No physical objects or costumes may be used. Performers will use off-stage focus. Actors will utilize stationary blocking to enhance the interpretation. They may move in any direction as long as they stay within an imaginary 6 x 6 foot box during the entire interpretation.

EXTEMPORANEOUS COMMENTARY

Five minutes maximum. Current national and international topics are selected. The contestant draws three topics, selects one and has twenty minutes to prepare in a monitored area. Only contestants are permitted in the area and contestants may not go elsewhere to prepare, nor talk to each other during the preparation time. The commentary must be delivered seated behind a table or desk. NO NOTES ARE ALLOWED.

EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING - FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC

Seven minutes . Current national and international topics are selected. The contestant draws three topics, selects one, and has thirty minutes to prepare in a monitored area. Only contestants are permitted in the area and contestants may not go elsewhere to prepare, nor talk to each other during the preparation time. No magazines may be carried to the lectern. NO NOTES ARE ALLOWED.

HUMOROUS INTERPRETATION

Ten minutes maximum. Selections must be cuttings from published printed novels, short stories, plays, poetry, or a digital publication that meets the already established NSDA Online Publications Rubric. If a selection does not meet the established Rubric, coaches may request an evaluation of the piece by the Rules Committee. They may take a single step in any direction as long as they stay within an imaginary 3 x 3 foot box during the entire interpretation.

INFORMATIVE SPEAKING

Eight to ten minutes. This event requires an original, factual speech fulfilling the general end of informing the audience. The speech must be the original work of the student and may not have been used in competition prior to the current season. The current debate subject may not be used. Audio/visual aids are allowed, though the use of electronic equipment (i.e. anything requiring a power source to operate), live animals, costumes, and/or additional people is prohibited. A manuscript must be given to the tournament director prior to competition. Not more than 150 words of the speech may be a direct quotation from any other speech or writing and such quotations must be identified in the typewritten copy of the speech supplied at registration. Extensive paraphrasing from other sources is prohibited. NO NOTES ARE ALLOWED.

Teamwork provides perfect backdrop for family working together in Alaska

DENALI PRINCESS WILDERNESS LODGE®

The Shreeve Family knows the importance of teamwork. We're not just related, we are also co-workers at Denali Princess Wilderness Lodge. Knowing how to best support my team, whether we're at home, work, or on the field is a skill I learned while participating in Ketchikan High School's football and basketball programs.

Just as important as supporting my teammates on the field was watching my dad support me from the sidelines. One time he drove all the way from the Lodge to Delta Junction just to watch me play in an away game. ASAA builds valuable skills and camaraderie between players and families alike.

The Shreeves are proud to work for a company who sponsors the Alaska School Activities Association (ASAA), providing today's young Alaskans with 34 sports and activities to enrich their lives and ensure Alaska's future. We can't wait for the next generation to start participating!
