ABOUT AASG

The Alaska Association of Student Governments is part of ASAA, and receives generous in-kind and financial support from ASAA. AASG has a student-led Executive Board with support from the Executive Director and the Steering Committee of Advisors. The AASG Executive Board includes the President, Vice President, Parliamentarian, Secretary, Treasurer, Public-Relations officer, Representative Liaison to ASAA, and Representative Liaison to Alaska State Board of Education and Early Development; all of whom are selected at the spring conferences. Representatives from the six AASG regions are selected at the fall conference. The Steering Committee is comprised of the advisors of the students serving on the Executive Board. Included in this Handbook are materials for your use when engaging in AASG activities.

Please check our web site at <http://www.aasg.org> for updates. For more information contact the ASAA office at (907) 563-3723.

STUDENT COUNCIL OF EXCELLENCE AWARD APPLICATION

The Alaska Association of Students Governments encourages student councils in Alaska to be strong, active, and responsive. The High School Student Council of Excellence Award honors schools with councils which meet high standards. All councils meeting the criteria will be recognized and honored at the Spring Conference! All Student Councils of Excellence will be inscribed on the AASG STUDENT COUNCIL OF EXCELLENCE PLAQUE, a fantastic honor for student councils in Alaska!

The awards will be announced at the Spring Conference, Applications must be postmarked/submitted no later than 1 week before the Conference or be delivered on the first day at the Spring Conference no later than the end of First GA.

APPLICATION PROCESS

1. The application must be signed by the principal, student council advisor, and student council president.
2. All student councils that apply must have delegate(s) at the Spring Conference.
3. The application covers activities completed in the 4 semesters before the Conference.
4. The application must be complete and organized to be considered. The portfolio must show documentation for all activities in sections A and B; 3 activities in section C, and at least 5 in section D, as well as completed application and certification form. The rubric will help you check the completeness of your application.
5. Label all documentation with the correct category (eg. A1, B3)
6. Each activity or project may be submitted for only one category.
7. The application and documentation must be reproducible for committee use.
8. Student Councils must receive 190 of 200 possible points in order to earn the award.
9. The AASG Committee will announce the Student Councils of Excellence on the last day of the Spring Conference.
10. Student Councils may apply yearly. However, if selected as a Student Council of Excellence, they must use different activities each year to justify the next year's award.
11. If a student council is awarded the Excellence Award three years successively, the council will earn the Student Council of Excellence Pennant.
 - A. To be awarded the Student Council of Excellence award, a high school student council must answer the following four questions:
 1. What makes your council extraordinary?
 2. How do you work beyond the school to respond to the needs in the community?
 3. What strategies has your council used to become more effective in responding to the needs in your school?
 4. What outcomes is your council most proud of?
 - B. To earn the Student Council of Excellence award, a high school student council must show DOCUMENTATION of all of the following (5 points each):
 1. Membership in AASG for at least the last two years;
 2. By-laws and/or constitution that govern your student council;
 3. Must document that the council has a designated advisor who participates with student council at meetings and acts as a "coach" for student leadership;
 4. Student council meetings held regularly. Include minutes for one meeting, with calendar of dates of meetings, and public announcement of meetings;
 5. Documentation of democratic election/selection process for officers, including sample ballot and election results;
 6. Internal communication with administration, student body, school board, teachers, and community on issues;
 7. Financial Planning: Show this with a budget of an activity or your council;
 8. Evaluation: Provide copy of evaluation tool or survey your council has used, INCLUDING results of the survey, action plan, and steps completed.

AASG CODE OF CONDUCT

The Alaska Association of Student Governments (AASG) is under the umbrella of the Alaska School Activities Association (ASAA). Student participants are ambassadors of their school and community. As such, ASAA and AASG expect students to portray good citizenship, practice fair and ethical behavior, and to be good role models. To ensure health, safety and rights of all participants in ASAA and AASG sponsored events, the AASG Executive Board adopted this Code of Conduct.

AASG-sponsored events strive to offer a safe environment for Alaskan students to learn, grow and have fun. Although event organizers have assumed responsibility for planning a safe and wholesome program, it is the responsibility of each student to behave in an appropriate manner. The accompanying advisor or chaperone retains responsibility for the student while traveling to and from the event, as well as at the event itself, unless it is other- wise indicated on the Parent/Guardian Consent for Student Participation/Travel form. Individual school district policies may also further delineate this responsibility.

All students participating in AASG-sponsored events are expected to:

1. Be under the direct supervision of a school official or his/her designee at all times.
2. Attend all event sessions that are required by the school and/or the advisor.
3. Respect the rights, diversity and safety of others.
4. Treat event personnel, including host school staff and students, with dignity and respect.
5. Respect the property of other individuals and facilities. Vandalism, theft, and possession of stolen property will not be tolerated.

All ASAA or AASG-sponsored events will be conducted in drug-free environments. Use, possession, and/or distribution of alcohol, tobacco, or illegal drugs are strictly prohibited.

Violation of this code will result in the withdrawal of the student's right to participate in the event, as well as to attend the event. AASG director and host school's administrator, jointly retain the right to send the student home at the student's expense.

Your signatures below indicate that you have read and discussed the above guidelines and expectations with the student and are in agreement with this Code of Conduct.

All About Resolutions & Resolution Template

Resolutions are vehicles by which students/schools/communities may convey their ideas and opinions to those who make important decisions that influence their lives. AASG General Assemblies (GA's), made up of students from around the state, debate and adopt resolutions presented by delegates at the spring and fall GA's.

Any student can write a resolution and present it to the GA of AASG for review. When writing a resolution, students should ask themselves the following questions:

- Does the resolution accurately express my opinion?
- Am I building a logical, persuasive argument to encourage others to support my resolution?
- How will I respond to difficult questions?
- If it passes at AASG, what will I do with the resolution?

Look to the resolution template for reference, or on our website at <http://aasg.org/aasg-resolutions/past-resolutions/> for examples of resolutions that the GA of AASG has discussed in the past.

Submissions:

- Beginning submission date begins the next day after the conclusion of the previous conference. The vice president will acknowledge receipt, review, and approve for distribution. If returned because of omissions or errors, it is not considered submitted.
- Resolutions must be submitted, by email, to the vice president in an editable format (Such as Google Docs, and Microsoft Word).
- Resolutions will be ordered by the exact date and time of the online submission of accepted resolution (i.e. correctly submitted) received at vice president's email address after the beginning submission date.
- The author of the resolution is expected to email the vice president, at the email address listed above, after the conference to give an update on the resolution and what has been done to implement it.

Presentation of Resolutions at Conference:

The following bullet point are guidelines for discussion etiquette for resolutions in the General Assemblies. They help increase the efficiency with which the resolutions are dispatched and keep the spirited debate at a professional level.
