WELCOME TO THE FESTIVAL

Welcome to the 2012 ASAA/First National Bank Alaska All-State High School Music Festival.

Our Mission Statement: "The existence of this Music Festival enables outstanding high school musicians to participate as members of a select statewide band, choral or orchestra music ensemble and promotes the highest standards of musicianship. It is the goal of this activity to foster and inspire technical achievement, aesthetic understanding, and critical listening skills that allow for the culmination of a final creative musical performance of the highest artistic level."

Beginning with 852 individual auditions from 57 schools throughout the State of Alaska, the 347 students that you will see and hear this evening represent the finest of Alaska's young musicians. These accomplished young students, taught by 88 dedicated and equally capable school music directors, have gathered for three days of intense rehearsals with four outstanding professional conductors to provide this final concert for you. What a treat you have in store!

It is no small task when trying to gather the participants and to coordinate this weekend's rehearsals and concert. Many, many thanks go to those who have been involved in the process of getting these students from that first recording session to the stage of West Anchorage High School Auditorium in Anchorage, Alaska. Each of these students have been encouraged by a host of parents, music directors, private music teachers, adjudicators, peers, siblings, school administrations and school boards who all realize the power and influence that quality music can have in a young person's life. They have taken that extra effort to insure that this musical experience can continue for yet another generation of young musicians by presenting this concert this evening.

Thank you, thank you!

MUSIC VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

ASAA seeks volunteers to assist the ASAA MUSIC COORDINATOR with the two state music festivals held each year.

The ALL-STATE MUSIC FESTIVAL occurs during the third week in November. This festival showcases the finest of Alaskan musicians in four performing groups—the All-State Band, the All-State Mixed Choir, the All-State Orchestra and the All-State Treble Choir who perform in a Gala Concert after three days of intensive rehearsals with national conductors.

The STATE SOLO and ENSEMBLE MUSIC FESTIVAL occurs during the first week in May. This festival provides an opportunity for outstanding musicians who have received superior ratings at their individual regional music festivals to come to a state level music festival for further competition. One student from each musical category is then selected to perform in a Command Performance Concert at the end of the three day festival.

Volunteers are needed for: adjudicators, accompanists, preparing packets for directors and students, room and door monitors, festival and concert set-up.

To volunteer or for more information, please contact Cam Bohman, ASAA Music Coordinator, at ASAA 563-3723, or at www.asaa.org.

THANK YOU FOR ATTENDING THIS EVENING'S GALA ALL-STATE MUSIC FESTIVAL CONCERT

We respectfully request that you remember the following theater concert etiquette so all might have an enjoyable, musical evening.

PLEASE

- No food or drinks in the auditorium
- Turn off your cell phones and pagers
- No cameras or videos are allowed on stage
- Do not take pictures during a performance:
  - Group, first chair and candid pictures are available as indicated in the program and may be purchased after the concert
  - Stay quiet during the performance
  - Whistling, calling out individual student's names, etc. is not appropriate. This is a concert presentation vs an athletic contest.
  - Not sure when to clap?

Wait and watch those around you and the conductor.
When the conductor turns around to face the audience, clap with enthusiasm.

If needed, exit between musical selections and/or groups.

- If you need to leave while a group is performing, exit only through the end doors at the rear of the auditorium.
- You may exit through all doors at the rear of the auditorium between groups.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING OUR YOUNG, TALENTED, ALASKAN MUSICIANS!

BETSY COOK WEBER:

Betsy Cook Weber is Professor of Music and Director of Choral Studies at the University of Houston's Moores School of Music. Dr. Weber teaches a full load of coursework, oversees the large and varied choral area at the Moores School, and is also highly active as a clinician, adjudicator, lecturer, and conductor.

Recent engagements include serving as conductor of All-State choirs of Nebraska, New York, Virginia, and Arkansas as well as working at festivals in Texas, Florida, California, Mississippi, Ohio, Georgia, Louisiana, Tennessee and New Mexico. Recently, she also presented lectures for ACDA and MENC chapters in West Virginia, Alabama, and Texas.

Dr. Weber served seven years as Assistant and, later, Associate Director of the Houston Symphony Chorus, helping prepare major works for renowned conductors including Robert Shaw, Christoph Eschenbach, Roger Wagner, Nicholas McKegan, and Christopher Seaman.

Before coming to the University of Houston, Dr. Weber was a successful music teacher in the public schools at the elementary, middle school, and high school levels, during which time choirs under her direction flourished and won numerous competitions and awards.

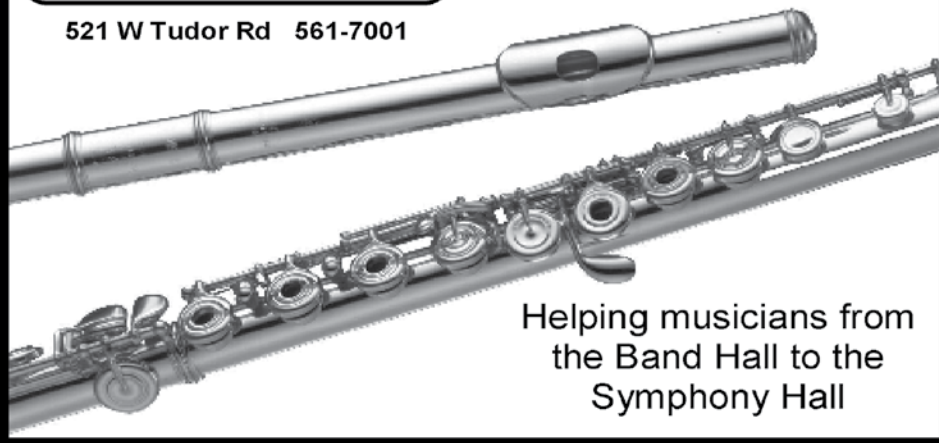

The Moores School Concert Chorale, which she conducts, has received international acclaim, receiving performance invitations to state (TMEA 2002, 2005, 2008) and national (ACDA 2007 in Miami) conventions. They participated in the Eisteddfod in Wales, UK in 2009, winning or placing in every category in which they entered, including a first place in the coveted Chamber Choir category. In 2011, Chorale travelled to Tours, France to participate in the prestigious Florilège Vocal du Tours where they placed second in the Mixed Chorus category and won a first place for the best performance of a world premiere piece.

Dr. Weber holds degrees from the University of North Texas, Westminster Choir College (Princeton, NJ), and the University of Houston.

RICHARD BJELLA

Richard Bjella was most recently hired in September 2009 as full professor and Director of Choral Studies at Texas Tech University. The highly acclaimed University Choir who made its Carnegie performance debut on May 2, 2010 to rave reviews. They just performed as the only college choir to sing at the 2012 TMEA Convention in San Antonio to two standing ovations.

Previous to 2009, Bjella was the Director of Choral Studies at Lawrence University, Conservatory of Music. The Concert Choir most recently performed for the 2009 National American Choral Directors Association Convention in Oklahoma City. Bjella has conducted outside the United States in Prague, Paris, Lucerne, Vilnius, Seoul, and London and has guest conducted over 350 festivals and workshops in 29 states. Most recently he was honored to conduct the Arizona All-State, the All Northwest 6 state MENC All-State (Seattle), the Connecticut All-State, the Collegiate All-State Choir in Wisconsin, the National OAKE HS choir in Phoenix, AZ, Mozart Requiem in Lincoln Center, and presented sessions in Tennessee and Washington for music educators. This year he is presenting workshops or guest conducting in Ohio, Tennessee, Iowa, Florida, Georgia, Texas, New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Alaska. The Texas Tech University Choir will be appearing at the national ACDA convention in Dallas in 2013 as well.

Bjella served as President of the Wisconsin Choral Directors' Association, has been a part of the Comprehensive Musicianship through Performance leadership team for Wisconsin Music Educators Association, and various state and regional leadership positions with ACDA and WMEA as well. He was been inducted into the Washington High School Fine Arts Hall of Fame, and is also listed in the World Concert Artist Directory of Conductors and Biltmore's "Who's, Who in America", and was most recently awarded the Hanns Kretzchmar Award for Excellence in the Arts in 2006 and received the 'Lawrence Excellence in Teaching Award' in 2007.

ANTHONY ELLIOTT

Anthony Elliott, Conductor of the Michigan Youth Orchestra at the University of Michigan, is in continuous demand as a conductor, and as a concert cellist. Equally at home with the bow or the baton, he has earned numerous awards, enthusiastic public acclaim, and excellent critical notices for his performances throughout the United States, Canada, Europe, and Asia. The New York Times hailed his recent Carnegie Hall concert conducting the Sphinx Chamber Orchestra as “first rate in every way”.

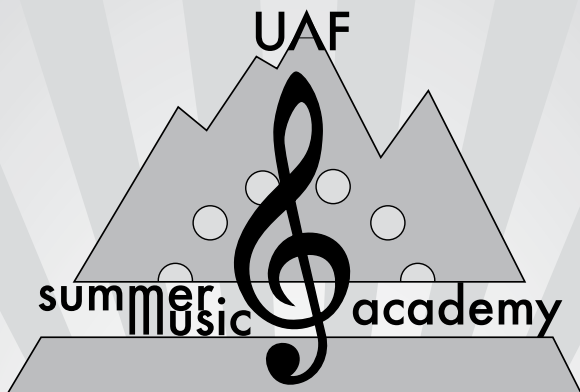

Maestro Elliott was first encouraged to pursue conducting by the late Karel Ancerl, who as Music Director, led the Czech Philharmonic to international prominence. Conducting studies were under the direction of Vilem Sokol. He has participated in conducting master classes sponsored by the American Symphony Orchestra League under the direction of Pierre Boulez and Andre Previn, and is a member of the Conductor’s Guild. Mr. Elliott was also invited to give workshops for conductors at the Midwestern Conference of Music Education at the University of Michigan, and for the Texas Orchestra Directors Association.

Recently he conducted a series of concerts with the San Antonio Symphony. He also led the Sphinx Chamber Orchestra in two critically acclaimed performances in Carnegie Hall. He also conducted the opening concert of the Guelph Spring Festival, one of Canada’s oldest classical music festivals, featuring the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony. That performance included the World Premiere of And the Children Shall Lead by composer Jeffrey Ryan. The work was a special commission from the Millennium Arts Fund of the Canada Arts Council. Other recent engagements include the Sphinx Symphony, Plymouth (MI) Symphony, the Prince George’s Philharmonic, the University Symphony Orchestra at the University of Michigan, the New York, Washington, Texas, Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, Maryland, Alaska, and North Dakota All State Orchestras, the All Northwest Orchestra, and a fully staged production of Gian Carlo Menotti’s Amahl and the Night Visitors. Other fully staged operas include Così fan tutte, and The Consul. His activities as a conductor are far ranging, including choral works, ballet, and collaborating with internationally known soloists such as Pinchas Zukerman, Nathaniel Rosen, Phillipe Bianconi, Margarita Noye, Jeffrey Biegel, Valerie Gillard, Paul Rosenthal, and Alice Neary.

Mr. Elliott has conducted the Kent/Blossom Chamber Orchestra at the Blossom Music Festival, an honor he has shared with National Symphony Orchestra Music Director Leonard Slatkin, and Cleveland Orchestra Resident Conductor Jahja Ling. He has also shared podium duties at the Texas Music Festival with such noted maestros as Christoph Eschenbach and Maxim Shostakovich. For seven seasons, he served as Assistant Music Director of the Marrowstone Music Festival, conducting both the Festival and Concert Orchestras. As Music Director of the Houston Youth Symphony and Ballet, he led successful collaborations of music with dance, a joint concert with the New Philharmonic Junior Orchestra of Osaka-Kobe, a joint concert with the San Antonio Youth Orchestra, and a heralded two week European concert tour to Holland, Germany, and Austria. He has also led the CAMMAC Orchestra, The Vancouver Chamber Players, the Scott Joplin Chamber Orchestra, the University of Houston Symphony Orchestra, the Michigan Youth Arts Festival Orchestra, the All Michigan Honors Orchestra, and the Western Michigan University Symphony Orchestra. In 1988 he received a Citation of Excellence for his artistic accomplishments from Houston Mayor Kathryn Whitmire and the Houston City Council.

Mr. Elliott was the Grand Prize winner of the Feuermann International Solo Cello Competition in 1987, and has appeared as a soloist with the New York Philharmonic, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Minnesota Orchestra, the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, the Cleveland Institute Symphony Orchestra and the CBC Toronto Symphony Orchestra. He has recorded for Vox, Koch, Collins Classics, and Equilibrium Records.

TIMOTHY SALZMAN:

Timothy Salzman is in his twenty-sixth year at the University of Washington where he serves as Professor of Music/Director of Concert Bands, is conductor of the University Wind Ensemble and teaches students enrolled in the graduate instrumental conducting program. Former students from the University of Washington occupy positions at numerous universities and public schools throughout the United States.

Prior to his appointment at the UW he served for four years as Director of Bands at Montana State University where he founded the MSU Wind Ensemble. From 1978 to 1983 he was band director in the Herscher, Illinois, public school system where the band program received several regional and national awards in solo/ensemble, concert and marching band competition.

Professor Salzman holds degrees from Wheaton (IL) College (Bachelor of Music Education), and Northern Illinois University (Master of Music in low brass performance), and studied privately with Arnold Jacobs, former tubist of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

He has numerous publications for bands with the C. L. Barnhouse, Arranger's Publications, Columbia Pictures, Hal Leonard Publishing and Nihon Pals publishing companies, and has served on the staff of new music reviews for The Instrumentalist magazine.

Professor Salzman is a national artist/clinician for the Yamaha Corporation of America and has been a conductor, adjudicator or arranger for bands throughout the United States and in Canada, England, Russia, South Korea, Indonesia, Thailand, the Philippines, Singapore, China, and Japan, a country he has visited twenty-one times.

During his 2011 spring term sabbatical leave he returned for a third time to Beijing where he was in residence at the Beijing Conservatory, conducting and giving master classes for numerous bands including a concert appearance at the National Center for the Performing Arts in Tiananmen Square with the Beijing Wind Orchestra, the first professional wind ensemble in Beijing. He also adjudicated the Singapore Youth Festival National Concert Band Championships.

Upon his return to the United States he conducted the UCLA Wind Ensemble in their final concert of their academic year. Professor Salzman is compiling editor and co-author (with several current and former UW graduate students) of A Composer's Insight: Thoughts, Analysis and Commentary on Contemporary Masterpieces for Wind Band, a five-volume series of books on contemporary wind band composers published by Meredith Music Publications, a subsidiary of the Hal Leonard Corporation.

He is an elected member of the American Bandmasters Association and is a past president of the Northwest Division of the College Band Directors National Association.

Under Professor Salzman's direction the University of Washington Wind Ensemble has performed at a number of prestigious music conventions, has presented several world premiere performances of outstanding new music for wind band and in 2004, undertook a highly acclaimed nine-day concert tour of the Kansai region of Japan returning for more extensive tours of that country in 2007 and 2010. In the spring of 2006, the ensemble was invited by the Seattle Symphony Orchestra to present a concert at Benaroya Hall as a part of the Symphony's Made in America Festival. The London Financial Times review of the concert applauded "music of surprising sophistication...Cindy McTee's Finish Line pulsed energetically and William Bolcom's Song was simply gorgeous." Subsequent to the 2006 performance the ensemble was invited for return appearances on Seattle Symphony concert series in 2007, 2008, and 2011.

The UW Wind Ensemble has also collaborated with a number of internationally renowned guest artists, conductors and composers including Eddie Daniels, Steve Houghton, Allen Vizzutti, James Walker, Douglas Yeo, Leigh Howard Stevens, David Maslanka, Michael Colgrass, Cindy McTee, Eric Ewazen and David Stanhope. In July of 2008 Nihon Pals, a music education resource company based in Osaka, Japan, released a set of instructional DVDs, The Architecture and Responsibilities of the Wind Ensemble, regarding the subject of building ensemble musicality featuring Professor Salzman and the UW Wind Ensemble. School music educators throughout Japan have purchased the DVDs and the Japan Educational Music and Culture Association nominated the series for a research award.

The University of Washington hosted the 2011 College Band Directors National Association biennial conference, the first time the conference was held on the west coast of the United States in forty years.

MARK ROBINSON

Mark Robinson worked for the Kenai Peninsula Borough School District as a choral music specialist for 27 years. He began teaching K-12 music at Anchor Point School before he transferred in 1989 to serve as choral director for Homer High School and Homer Middle School. During his tenure at Homer High School and Homer Middle School, Mr. Robinson exposed his students to a wide variety of musical literature including (but certainly not limited to) the great classics of Western European culture, American jazz, folk songs from around the world, and sacred songs from a variety of religions. Whenever possible all songs were performed in their original language, and rehearsals included discussions of culture, history, diversity, and inspiration in addition to learning the music.

Mr. Robinson spent innumerable hours after school and on weekends recording students to give them the opportunity to compete at the borough, state, regional, and national levels, and as a result, Homer High School has always been very well represented at these festivals. He created a select choir (Swing Choir) which was involved in extensive community outreach: caroling around Homer at Christmas time, performing at Rotary events, long-term care facilities, and numerous community fundraisers and benefits. His entire high school concert choir participated in annual musicals in collaboration with Pier One Theatre. Every fourth year the choir had the opportunity to travel and perform in memorable locations such as Carnegie Hall, St. Peter's Basilica, and the Mauthausen concentration camp.

Mr. Robinson also served as artistic director for the Kenai Peninsula Orchestra for 18 years. In these dual roles, he has had the opportunity to bring the orchestra, adult community choir, and students together for a number of projects, including annual musicals, the Brahms Requiem, the Mozart Requiem, Orff's Carmina Burana, and the Vivaldi Gloria. As conductor emeritus of the Kenai Peninsula Orchestra, he conducted the glorious Beethoven Symphony No. 9 during the 2011 KPO Summer Music Festival with a combined choir of 150 students and adults from all over the Kenai Peninsula.

Mr. Robinson teaches much more than musical notes though, as he emphasizes and models acceptance, tolerance, inclusiveness, cooperation, responsibility, kindness, empathy, love of life, fair play, hard work, excellence, and self worth. Mr. Robinson's precepts include: strive for excellence, everyone has value, all children are beautiful, music is a universal language, adult/student collaboration is a positive thing, good will triumph over evil. But overall, Mr. Robinson's guiding principle is 'behold how good and pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity.' Whatever the age group a choir led by Mr. Robinson ceases to be a group of disparate individuals and becomes a community striving for shared perfection and joy.

Mr. Robinson holds a Masters of Music degree in conducting from Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana. He has been invited as guest conductor of festival choirs in the state of Alaska, and has been named a BP Teacher of Excellence, KPBSD Teacher of the Year, one of four finalists for Alaska State Teacher of the Year in 2006, and Homer's Citizen of the Year in 2002. He received the Homer Council on the Arts Art Leadership and Advocacy Award of 2006, and a Mayoral Proclamation recognizing his accomplishments in May 2011. Mr. Robinson retired from the Kenai Peninsula Borough School District in May 2012.

LINDA HARRIGER

Linda Harriger has worked for the University of Alaska Fairbanks Department of Music for over fifteen years. She began in 1997 as the coordinator and main contact person for the UAF Summer Fine Arts Camp. Eventually, Linda transitioned into the administrative assistant position for the department and also became the coordinator of the current Summer Music Academy and Jazz Festival. She is responsible for most of the day-to-day operations of the music department, preparation work for the annual UAF Jazz Festival and Summer Music Academy, reservation of department facilities, and frequent box office duties for many department ensemble performances. Between her school year position with the department and the summer position with the academy, she works most of the year making sure that music is alive and well at UAF.

Linda is more than diligent, devoting countless hours to her job. Music activities at UAF would not happen without her involvement. Having been there longer than several music professors, Linda knows the history of the department and the answer to any question that might arise. Additionally, she genuinely cares about the students she comes in contact with. Linda knows and remembers all of the music majors that have gone through the department while she has been there, and knows many of the middle and high school students who attend academy and jazz festival by name. Whenever she sees them, she always converses, asks how they are doing, and will do anything that she can for them. Quite simply, Linda is the very friendly and helpful public face of the UAF Music Department, and it is an honor to award her the AMEA Music Advocate of the Year award.

Last year BP and its employees supported more than 700 education and service organizations in 49 different communities across Alaska. We believe these are investments that reach Alaskans everywhere.

SAFER KIDS—DRIVE A SAFER COMMUNITY

Last year our Driving Skills For Life program provided 11,975 teen drivers in the Northwest with the life-saving information and instruction they need to be safer on our roads. Educating teens to save lives—that's what Driving Skills for Life is all about.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Vehicle crashes are #1 killer of teens
- 16-year-olds are 10 times more likely to be involved in a crash than an adult
- Additional passengers increase the risk of a fatal crash for 16- and 17-year old drivers
- You can learn more at DrivingSkillsForLife.com

Alaska Commercial Company, serving rural Alaska since 1867

Competition. Harmony. SUCCESS.

For more than 20 years,
First National Bank Alaska's
title sponsorship of the Alaska School Activities Association has demonstrated the bank's genuine interest in the success of Alaskans.
