March 7, 2013

Dear Participants and Fans,

Welcome to the 2013 Alaska School Activities Association March Madness Alaska Basketball Tournament in Anchorage! Congratulations to every team participating. We wish you all a fun and competitive tournament.

Every day in Alaska, players and coaches get to model sportsmanship, respect, and well-played basketball. This tournament provides another opportunity for all of that and more! We need you on the court and off the court to use your strength to stand up for others against hurtful words and actions; and model respect in all your relationships – on the court and off. Together, we can build a culture of respect and end the epidemic of domestic violence in our state.

We extend our best wishes for a safe and exciting post-season tournament for competitors and fans alike, and we hope each student has a successful end of your school year.

Best regards,

Sean Parnell
Governor

Welcome to March Madness 2013

On behalf of the Alaska School Activities Association Board of Directors and ASAA's corporate partners, welcome to the 2013 First National Bank Alaska State HS March Madness Basketball Championships!

ASAA
ALASKA SCHOOL ACTIVITIES ASSOCIATION

Student-athletes, we applaud your dedication to doing your best for yourself and for your school. Coaches, counselors and parents, thank you for continuing to support interscholastic sports and activities. And, to the spectators, we appreciate your being part of this statewide championship event.

Gary Matthews,
ASAA Executive Director

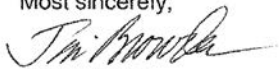

Welcome and Congratulations from the Anchorage School District

On behalf of the Anchorage School Board and the Anchorage School District, I want to welcome you to March Madness Alaska. We are very proud of all of the teams who are participating in this outstanding event. The Anchorage School District is delighted to be co-hosting this tournament for the fifteenth school year.

Over the next week, all of the teams will take over the basketball courts and do their very best in this tournament. At the end of the week, only one team in each category will stand at the top of the podium, but in my mind you are all winners for achieving a place in this state tournament! Working together as a team shows everyone in our state that our young people are great examples of the benefit of sports and other school activities. I want to personally thank all of the coaches, athletes, parents and family members, booster clubs, and community businesses and other sponsors who have supported these young people from all over the state during the 2012-2013 basketball season. We know that student activities benefit young people in many different ways, and are excellent preparation for their lives after high school whether they continue pursuing basketball and other activities or not. Through sports and other activities, our students learn life-long lessons of the value of physical fitness, ethics and honesty, perseverance, teamwork, and sportsmanship.

To all students, I challenge you to never give up on your grades, your sports and other activities, and your team spirit. I urge you to keep Norman Vaughan's motto in mind when you pursue excellence....."Dream big and dare to fail"....you will never fail if you keep trying! Congratulations and good luck, we are very proud of you!

Most sincerely,

Jim Browder
Superintendent

Over HALF of all teen driving deaths involve alcohol! Here are three sobering facts you will never see in a beer commercial:

- 80% of alcohol-related fatalities are caused by beer consumption
- 11,769 impaired drivers DIED in 2009, over 700,000 injured.
- ONE beer is the equivalent of a shot of 80 proof hard liquor.

Sportsmanship Creed

"This contest is being played under the authority of the Alaska School Activities Association. ASAA rules provide for fair play and good sportsmanship among athletes and coaches. Since booing and jeering do not support anyone, we expect fans to be positive in supporting their favorite team with encouraging comments and cheers. Please refrain from words or actions that would reflect negatively on your school and team. In other words, BE A FAN—NOT A FANATIC."

TONYA BUSSE, KLAWOCK

Busse comes back from knee injury to win player of the year

By Van Williams
 Special Correspondent

Sitting in the doctor's office last year after reconstructive knee surgery, Tonya Busse of Klawock was told she probably wouldn't play basketball her senior year due to the long road of rehabilitation.

"I was like, 'No, that's not gonna work for me,'" Busse said.

She was right. A few months later Busse was ready for cross country, then volleyball. By the time basketball season rolled around she was stronger than ever, an indication of her mental toughness and tireless work ethic.

"She's one of the hardest working people," Klawock coach Julie Horpestad said. "On the court, in the weight room, in the classroom; she's a 4.0 student. She works hard all the time."

Busse's sweat and sacrifice paid huge dividends as she responded with her best year on the court. Not only has the senior stand-out averaged 18 points and 10 rebounds per game, but she was named Class 1A Girls Player of the Year in a vote by the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches.

"She plays tough inside. She gets most of her points on the post, and she crashes for rebounds harder than anybody else," Horpestad said. "She likes to be physical. And she actually does a good job of being physical without picking up fouls. She's rarely in foul trouble."

Klawock's Tonya Busse (left) shoots over a Lathrop defender during a game this season. Busse, a 5-foot-11 center, was named Class 1A Girls Player of the Year in a vote by the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches. Busse is the second Klawock player to earn the award, joining Astin Bush in 1999.

The 5-foot-11 center learned how to dish it out, and take it back, during pickup games.

"When I was younger I shied away from contact, but the last couple years I've been playing more against the guys and the games are a lot more physical, and that's helped me become a better player," Busse said. "It's more fun that way."

Sponsor Thank You!

"Nikolaevsk School would like to thank ERA Aviation for their generous support! ERA Aviation donated airline tickets for our basketball raffles which has helped us to raise thousands of dollars over the last few years. ERA Aviation cares about Alaska's youth and it shows! Thank you ERA!"

*Bea Klaich
Nikolaevsk Head Volleyball & Basketball Coach*

"The Nikiski Basketball programs would like to thank ERA Alaska for its generous support of our community. In 2009 they became the marquee sponsor of the Nikiski Tip-Off Tournament. Continued advertising in our school, and the faithful commitment helping us travel safely to our key competitions is a prime example of ERA's investment in the future of Alaska. Nikiski Basketball is proud to join Era Alaska in its commitment to our most valuable resource... our kids! Fly Era!"

*Reid Kornstad
Nikiski High School Head Basketball Coach*

"I would like to thank ERA Alaska for the contribution they have made for high school athletics and activities over the years. They have helped in numerous communities that need additional help transporting officials and athletes to and from remote locations. ERA has always shown interest in doing what is correct and is a positive influence on Alaska. Thank you"

*Rus Schreckenghost
ASAA Associate
Director*

"We at St Mary's greatly appreciate ERA. We know that without this fine airline we would not be able to have a successful sports program in St. Mary's. I want to thank Era and their employees for all they do for our school and the other schools in this region."

*DeWayne Bahnsen
St. Mary's Head Coach*

"Kodiak High School would like to thank ERA Aviation for their support of our activities. ERA has continually helped us with our airlines travel. With our unique location and unpredictable weather, ERA continues to help us meet all our transportation needs via scheduled flights or throwing extra flights in to get teams on and off our island when our weather causes flight cancellations. ERA Aviation's commitment to provide the greatest service possible helps to make Kodiak's basketball teams and our various sports and clubs successful and competitive throughout the state. Thanks ERA Aviation."

Bryan Ferris - Kodiak High School Athletic Director

"As a basketball coach and athletic director, my team and I have the need to fly from time to time. I can't tell you how impressed I have been with the service we receive from ERA whenever we travel. ERA always goes out of their way to help accommodate our travel needs and make us feel special. I always appreciate their effort to make travel for us affordable. The bottom line is, I feel like they are more concerned with making sure my team and I are taken care of than, making an extra dollar. Thank you ERA for all you do for our school and athletic programs."

*Frank Ostanik
Monroe Catholic Director of Athletics
Head Boys Basketball Coach*

ERA is our only 1A village option for travel, thanks for being here for us and for sponsoring March Madness Alaska! "

*Frank Pickett
NSBSD 1A Village
Athletic Director*

"We appreciate ERA going the extra mile with our ball teams. They have stayed open late to get our teams home after games finish. Their personnel have been courteous and helpful to the players, and the pilots do a great job keeping us safe. Thanks ERA!"

*Stan VanAmburg
Noatak Head Basketball Coach*

SAFER KIDS—DRIVE A SAFER COMMUNITY

Last year our Driving Skills For Life program provided 11,975 teen drivers in the Northwest with the life-saving information and instruction they need to be safer on our roads. Educating teens to save lives—that's what Driving Skills for Life is all about.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Vehicle crashes are #1 killer of teens
- 16-year-olds are 10 times more likely to be involved in a crash than an adult
- Additional passengers increase the risk of a fatal crash for 16- and 17-year old drivers
- You can learn more at DrivingSkillsForLife.com

DANNY WELLS, NOORVIK

Different class, same result: Wells player of the year

By Van Williams
 Special Correspondent

After Danny Wells of Noorvik won player-of-the-year honors last year, you kind of figured it couldn't get any better for the basketball star.

Then he came back for his senior season and broke the school's scoring record.

Oh, yeah, and he bagged another top player award.

Wells was named Class 1A Boys Player of the Year in a vote by the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches after averaging 31 points and 10 rebounds in 26 games going into the state tournament.

"We have a young team, so I knew I had to pick up the scoring," Wells said. "This year I've been driving a lot. It was part of my game I wanted to work on."

Last year he was named Class 2A Boys Player of the Year, but this year Noorvik went back to 1A after ASAA realigned the classes.

Wells broke Noorvik's single-season scoring record of 642 held by Tim Field since 2009, carrying a 797-point total into state.

"What makes his scoring accomplishment even more impressive is that he has been the total defensive focus of every team we have played," said Noorvik coach Darren Zibell.

Noorvik's Danny Wells drives to the hoop for a layup, an element of his game he defined this season. "It gives me more opportunities to score because opponents don't know if I'm going to drive or if I'm going to shoot," said Wells, this year's Class 1A Boys Player of the Year.

"It's not like he's had it easy."

Wells won the award in a close vote over Klawock playmaker Tyrus Morgan, who received a handful of player-of-the-year nominations.

Morgan has averaged 18 points for the Southeast champions, although his coach believes he is talented enough to score 50 on any given night.

Others agreed.

"I felt Tyrus had the most complete game of any other player we came up against all year," said Cook Inlet Academy coach Justin Franchino. "He can go inside or outside, play offense or defense, and in my opinion is the best player in the state."

2013 PLAYER OF THE YEAR
DREW CARLOS, DILLINGHAM

Carlos is first player of the year from Dillingham

By Van Williams
 Special Correspondent

When Drew Carlos moved from Togiak to Dillingham last summer, she already knew most of the players on the girls basketball team.

Now the rest of the state knows her name.

Carlos was voted Class 2A Girls Player of the Year by the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches in a close race over Chelsea Tooyak of Point Hope and Jonisha Wilson of Unalakleet.

"Wow," Carlos said when she heard the news. "It makes me feel pretty happy, pretty proud of myself."

In her first season at the school Carlos became the first player in Dillingham history to be named player of the year in basketball. The Lady Wolverines are 22-1 this season, with their lone loss coming at the hands of 4A Colony.

Dillingham has been the best team all season and Carlos has been its best player.

"She's the most well-rounded kid I've had in terms of the depth of her skills," said Dillingham coach Sean Carlos, her dad and the former coach at Togiak. "Her full-court offensive game is the best I've seen out here. She's just a definite presence all the way around."

Being the daughter of the coach can be tough at times because some people assume she gets favoritism when in fact she is held to a higher standard at practice and at home.

Basketball is a family tradition; so is being an all-star –sister Keilyn was named to the all-tournament team at state in 2008 and sister Whitney was a first team all-state pick in 2010. Now Drew is player of the year.

Dillingham's Drew Carlos [right] blocks a shot against Bristol Bay, demonstrating the all-around skills that made her the Class 2A Girls Player of the Year. "She is consistent in all aspects of the game," said Dillingham coach Sean Carlos.

"I think playing with people like my older sisters, who are better than me, made me an all-around player," Drew said. "One of my sisters is a really good shooter and another is really good at defense. I just wanted to be better than them both of them."

Leading Alaska's active teens

At Providence, we believe that active teens become active adults – living happy, healthy lives. Kikkan Randall agrees. She grew up running, skiing and hiking around Alaska. Today, she's America's Olympic cross-country skiing star.

Providence supports Alaska's teens and role models like Kikkan Randall by providing programs and services that encourage healthy lifestyles for all Alaskans.

Providence – you have our word.

2013 COACH OF THE YEAR
ALBERT GREEN, HOOPER BAY

2013 PLAYER OF THE YEAR
KACY GREEN, HOOPER BAY

Green is Hooper Bay's first player of the year

By Van Williams
 Special Correspondent

If star players are ultimately judged by their performance in big games, then Kacy Green might go down as the best in Hooper Bay history.

The 6-foot-2 senior guard put the Warriors on his back during the region tournament in Point Hope, scoring 36 points in the semifinals and a career-high 38 in the finals, to lead them to the state tournament in his first season with his hometown team after transferring from Mt. Edgecumbe.

In the title game against Unalakleet, he twice came up clutch in the final moments. First he hit a 3 and stole the inbounds pass and scored to tie the game and force overtime. Then he hit a 3 late in overtime to force a second overtime. Hooper Bay eventually won in three OTs.

"Everyone was telling me to handle the ball," Green said. "The crowd was yelling, 'Get the ball to No. 21.' It was exciting."

Performances like that led to Green being voted Class 2A Boys Player of the Year by the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches. He is the first player from Hooper Bay to win the award.

"It means a lot," he said. "That was my goal from Day 1 of the season. It feels really good."

Kacy Green became the first player from Hooper Bay to earn Class 2A Boys Player of the Year honors. The 6-foot-2 guard pumped in a career-high 38 points to lead Hooper Bay over Unalakleet in three overtimes in the region championship game to get to state.

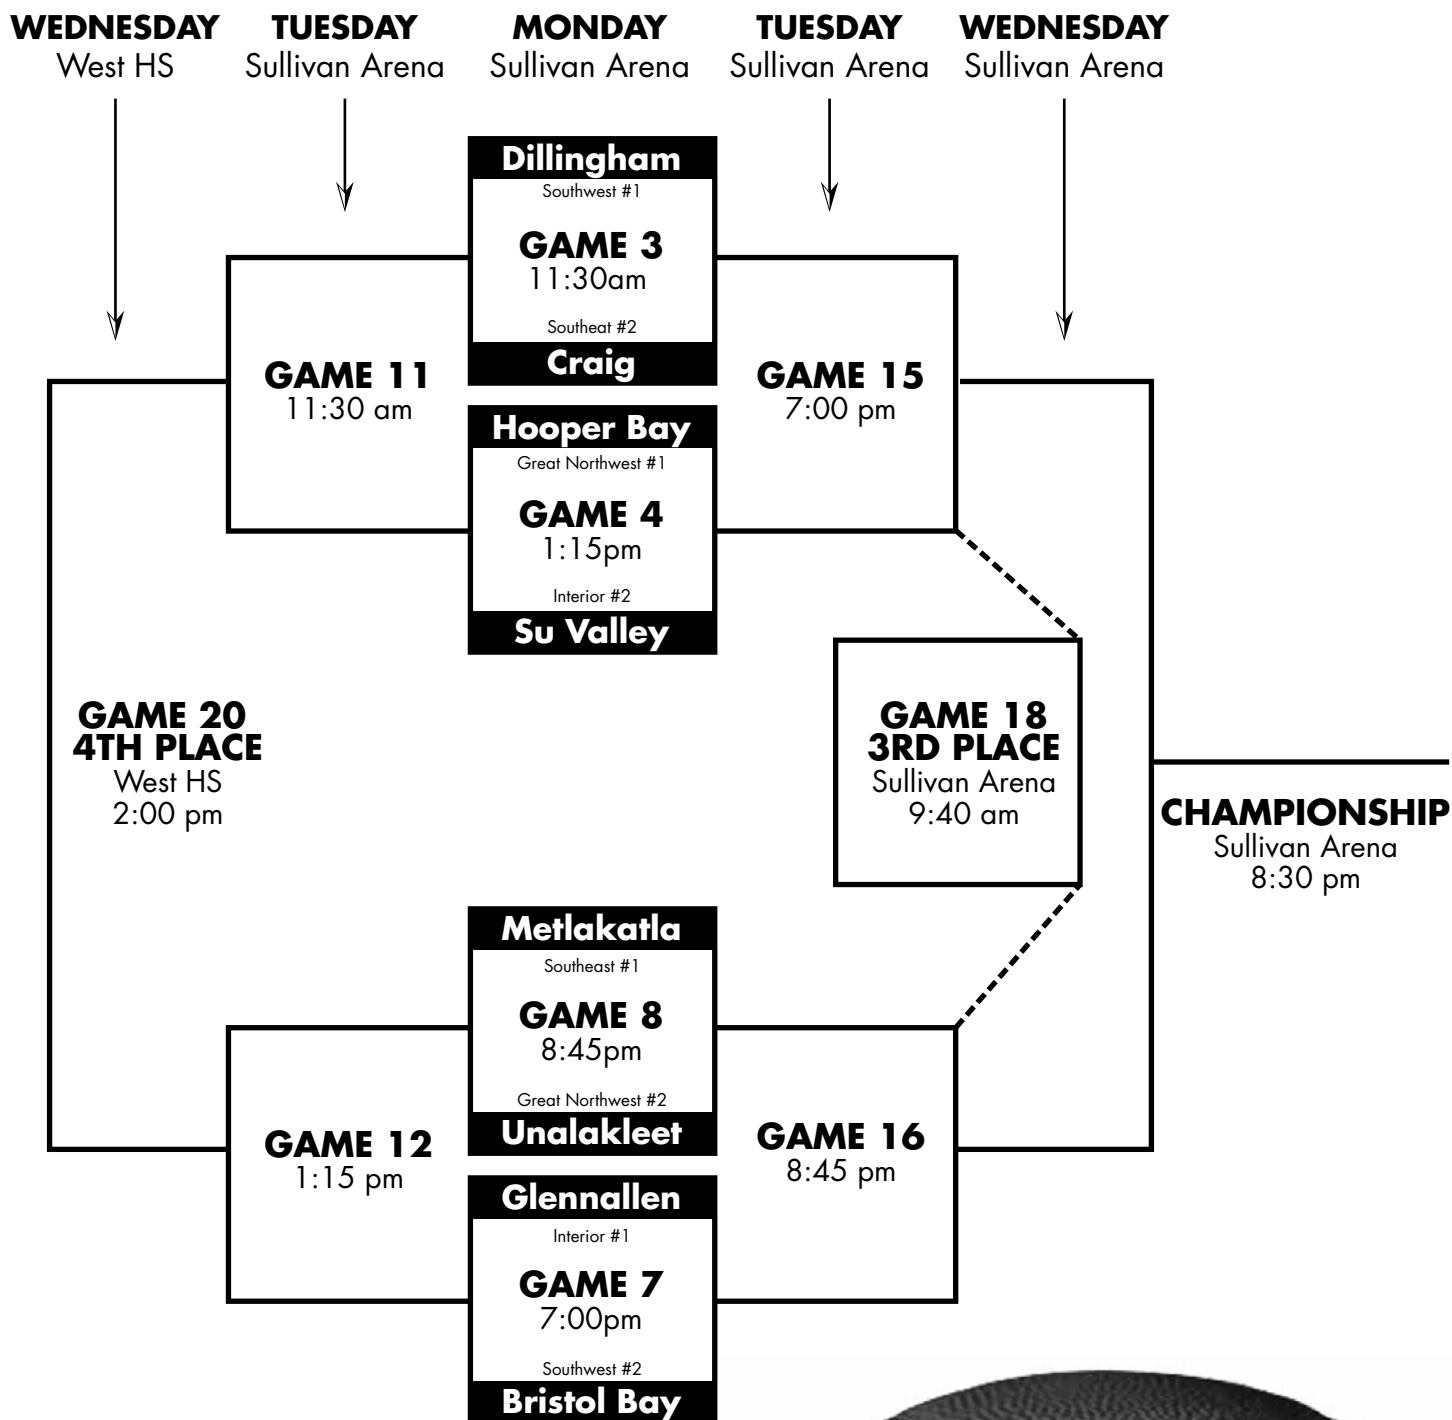

Green has averaged 19 points, 12 rebounds and 6 assists this season.

"His go-to move is a crossover with change of speed," said his coach Albert Green, who doubles as his father. "He will blow by his man and either score or give a good pass to an open man. I think his mindset is that nobody can stop him once he's on."

Former coach Archie Young at Mt. Edgecumbe raved about Kacy's court vision.

"His greatest asset is his ability to see the floor," said Young, who coached him the first three years of high school. "Coaches love kids that have good instincts and Kacy is one of those players."

ALASKA'S FUTURE HAS LOST ITS BOUNCE

Alaska's high oil taxes have taken the air out of our hopes for a strong economy and a prosperous future. The trans-Alaska oil pipeline is three-quarters empty. Oil production has fallen more than 200,000 barrels a day since ACES was imposed, and it continues to drop at a steady and alarming rate.

It's time to lower taxes and increase oil production ... time to put the bounce back into Alaska's future.

Wood ekes out Derifield & Co. for player of the year

By Van Williams
 Special Correspondent

It was too close to call most of the way, but once the numbers were crunched, Mimi Wood of Hutchison narrowly edged Alex Derifield of Valdez for the right to call herself Class 3A Girls Player of the Year.

In the end, Wood's versatility probably made the difference because she won the award despite receiving fewer first-place votes, the only time that's happened since the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches took over voting a couple years ago.

The voting could have gone either way, reminiscent of their head-to-head meetings this season with Hutchison winning three times, Valdez twice. Sometimes they even guard each other.

"Alex is a great scorer and she looks to her team as much as possible, but she finishes so well," Wood said. "I've always kind of looked up to her as a player."

Dallas Dickerson of Anchorage Christian Schools and Shayla Johnson Nome also received player-of-the-year votes in a season of stars.

"They are all such talented players," Wood said.

Yet she managed to top the list, arguably because she's the most complete player. She is a four-year starter who has averaged double figures each season, including 15 points per game this year.

"Mimi's value goes beyond scoring points. Offensively, she can play all five positions. Mimi is the most versatile player I have ever coached," said Hutchison coach Jenny Benson, former bench boss at the University of Alaska Fairbanks.

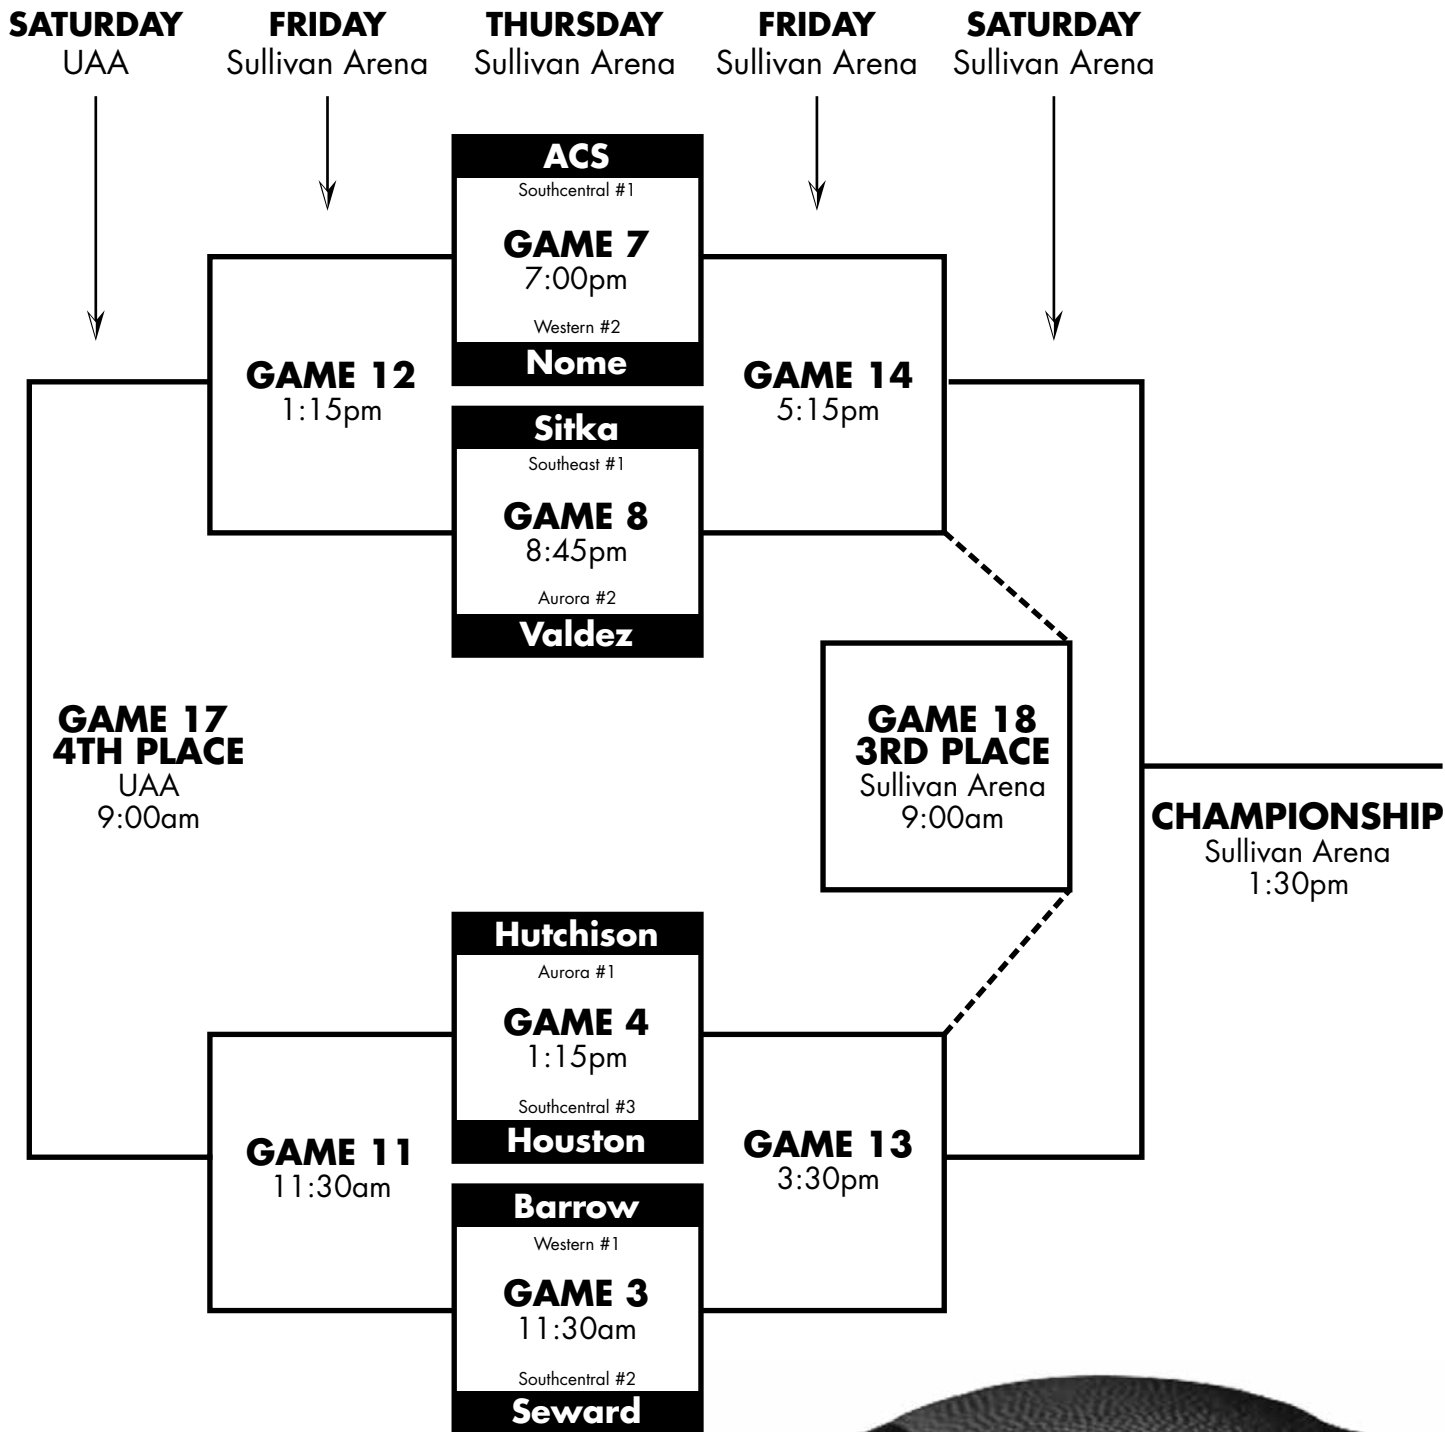

Mimi Wood of Hutchison scores a bucket over an ACS defender at last year's state tournament. The 5-foot-8 senior has always thrived in big moments, whether on offense, defense or in the huddle. A complete player, Wood's versatility helped her become Class 3A Girls Player of the Year.

"On the defensive end, she is the best defender I have ever seen. She can guard the quickest guard or the strongest post."

It's no big deal to Wood, who grew up battling boys for respect.

"I guess defense just came naturally because I used to play my cousins a lot and they were always like, 'You can't cry around here. You gotta be tough. You gotta play hard,'" she said. "That's just what I know."

AUGUSTUS SIMMERS, ACS

Simmers becomes first two-time 3A boys player of the year

By Van Williams
 Special Correspondent

With a 27-point average margin of victory, the Anchorage Christian Schools boys basketball team has been so good this season that its stars are sometimes handcuffed by the circumstances.

Yet Augustus Simmers has still stood out, thanks to a blend of size, speed and power.

The explosive 6-foot-4 small forward has averaged 20 points and 9 rebounds in limited playing time because the No. 1-ranked Lions win by such a lopsided margin. On some nights, bench players log more minutes than him as he sits out most of the second half.

"Honestly I didn't think I deserved it this year," Simmers said. "I thought I was out of focus and that I wasn't playing up to par, so to win, it's a blessing, really."

ACS is loaded with player-of-the-year candidates as teammates Calvin Hoffman and Jalen Terry also received votes for the No. 1 spot. Together, they have the Lions as king of the jungle.

It doesn't often make for competitive games. However, practices are a different story.

"We go at each other," Simmers said with a laugh. "And that helps a lot. I love practicing against those guys."

Simmers is the first two-time 3A boys player of the year in Alaska, but not his family. His sister Anna won the girls award twice, his other sister Debbiey once, giving his family a record five.

"It's a standard to live up to," Simmers said. "I hate the way that sounds, but it's an unspoken standard."

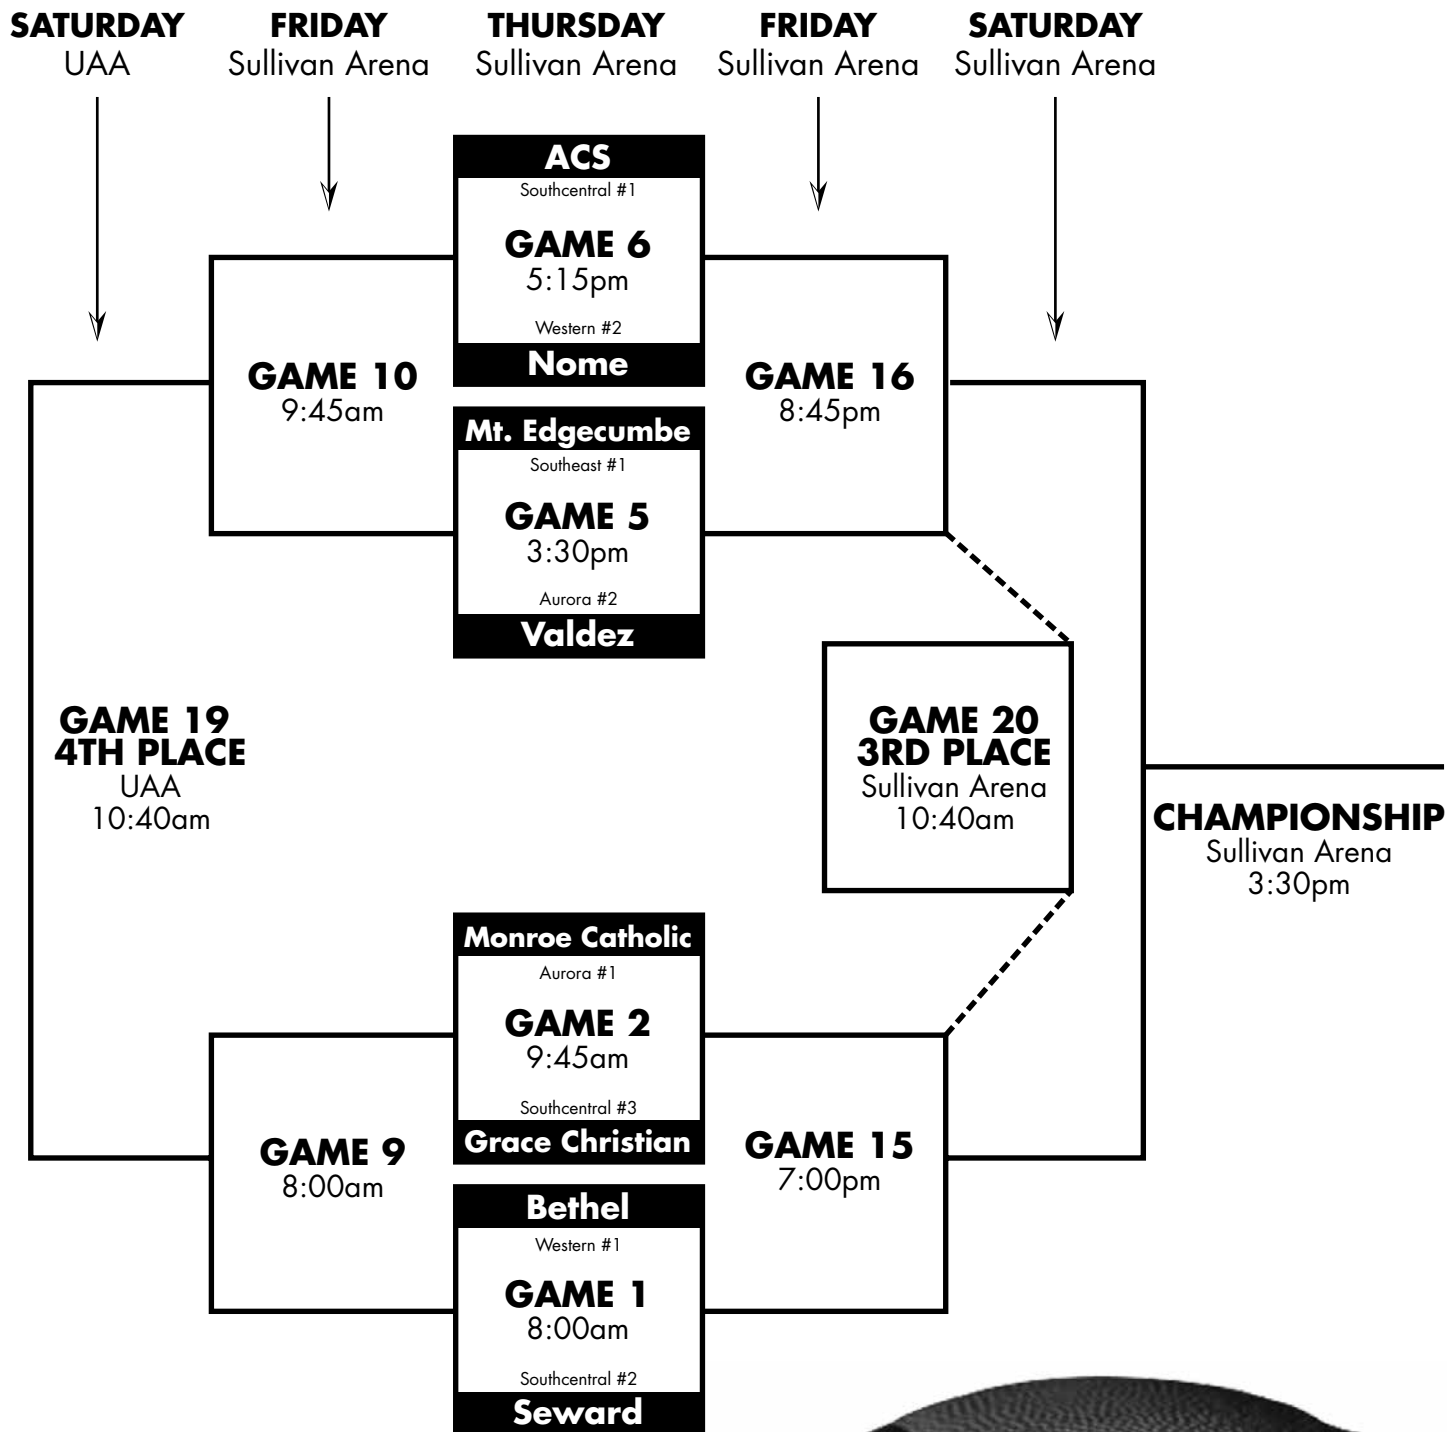

Anchorage Christian Schools all-star forward Augustus Simmers has looked like a man among boys this season. He has averaged 20 points in limited playing time because the No. 1-ranked Lions win by such a lopsided margin. Simmers was named Class 3A Boys Player of the Year.

Bethel's Dave Cronk was voted Class 3A Boys Coach of the Year after leading the Warriors to the Western Conference championship and a berth to the state tournament, the school's first appearance since 2008.

"He has done more with his talent than anyone else," said Frank Ostanik, coach of No. 2-ranked Monroe Catholic. "He has coached his kids to a high level."

Got game? Bring it.

Alaska Airlines is proud to support March Madness.

Boys and girls basketball teams from Barrow to Ketchikan travel to Anchorage and compete for a prize that will last a lifetime: the pride of knowing that they left it all on the court. That kind of effort makes every player a champion in our book.

Alaskans do a great job of supporting Alaska Airlines and we're very happy to be able to give a little back by supporting the community.

Sponsor Thank You!

"Thank you Alaska Airlines for your generous support of ASAA and student activities all over the state! The support you provide ASAA and all our member schools is extremely valuable to our youth."

*Isaiah Vreeman
ASAA State Championships
Director*

Alaska Airlines®

"Thank you Alaska Airlines for helping to provide transportation for the renowned Guest Conductors. They travel North to Alaska each November to conduct, inspire and motivate our finest young, Alaskan musicians at the All-State Music Festival. Musical techniques have been perfected, future careers have been launched and individual lives have been significantly changed because of this interaction between professional musician and student. THANK YOU, THANK YOU!"

*Cam Bowman
ASAA Music Coordinator*

"The Juneau-Douglas School District would like to thank Alaska Airlines for all their support for so many years! Being in Juneau and having to travel more than most teams we really want to thank Alaska Airlines for their continued support and helpfulness. Thank you Alaska Airlines for everything!"

*Sandi Wagner
Juneau-Douglas School District Athletic & Activities Director*

"A few years ago our girl's basketball team was up in Fairbanks playing in the Lathrop Christmas Basketball Tournament. Saturday it started raining and freezing very hard. The troopers closed down the Parks Highway because of very dangerous conditions. Parents were very concerned about getting their girls home for Christmas. On Sunday we woke up and the weather didn't change so our parents called Alaska Airlines to see if we could get a flight back home for the holidays. Not only did they get seats at a discounted price for all of our girls, they brought up a whole plane because at Christmas there were no seats available on the normally scheduled flights. Thanks you Alaska Airlines for your support of ASAA and all out teams no matter what their circumstance."

*Norman Bouchard
Houston Jr./Sr. High School Athletic Director*

"I'd like to send out an accolade to Alaska Airlines, and specifically the customer service agents that work the Group Desk. Time is never an issue for them, they'll spend as much time as you need with them in order to get something accomplished. They're always up beat and fun to talk to, and provide great customer service!"

*Ed Klein
Ketchikan High School Activities Director*

2013 PLAYER OF THE YEAR
KYLA DINKEL, WASILLA

On a team of stars, Dinkel emerges player of the year

By Van Williams
 Special Correspondent

The most consistent player on the state's top-ranked girls basketball team is likely to draw the attention of opposing coaches.

For Wasilla's Kyla Dinkel, they knew her name well enough to vote her Class 4A Girls Player of the Year.

The 6-foot-1 senior has averaged a double-double in points [16] and rebounds [10] this season to go along with a couple steals, assists and blocked shots per game.

"Kyla has been a dominating factor inside both offensively and defensively," Wasilla coach Jeannie Herbert-Truax said. "She is always ready to play and she plays 32 minutes pretty much every game."

Dinkel is part of the terrific trio of all-stars for Wasilla, with teammates Alysha Devine and Alexis Imoe also getting player-of-the-year consideration from Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches voters.

By comparison, Devine was named player of the year in the Northern Lights Conference.

On any given night, any one of them might be better than the other. Together, they are nearly unbeatable.

"Playing against each other made us a lot better," Dinkel said. "Some games we don't get in as much of a workout as we would have hoped, but in practice, definitely, my teammates make me better and I hope I make them better. We all push each other."

Dinkel's happy place is in the low post, where she can utilize her size, strength and smarts to overwhelm opponents.

"The offensive rebounds are the ones you really work

In just two years, Kyla Dinkel of Wasilla went from JV to MVP, winning Class 4A Girls Player of the Year honors this season. The 6-foot-1 senior averaged a double-double to help Wasilla earn the state's top ranking. "I wouldn't be near the player I am without my teammates," she said.

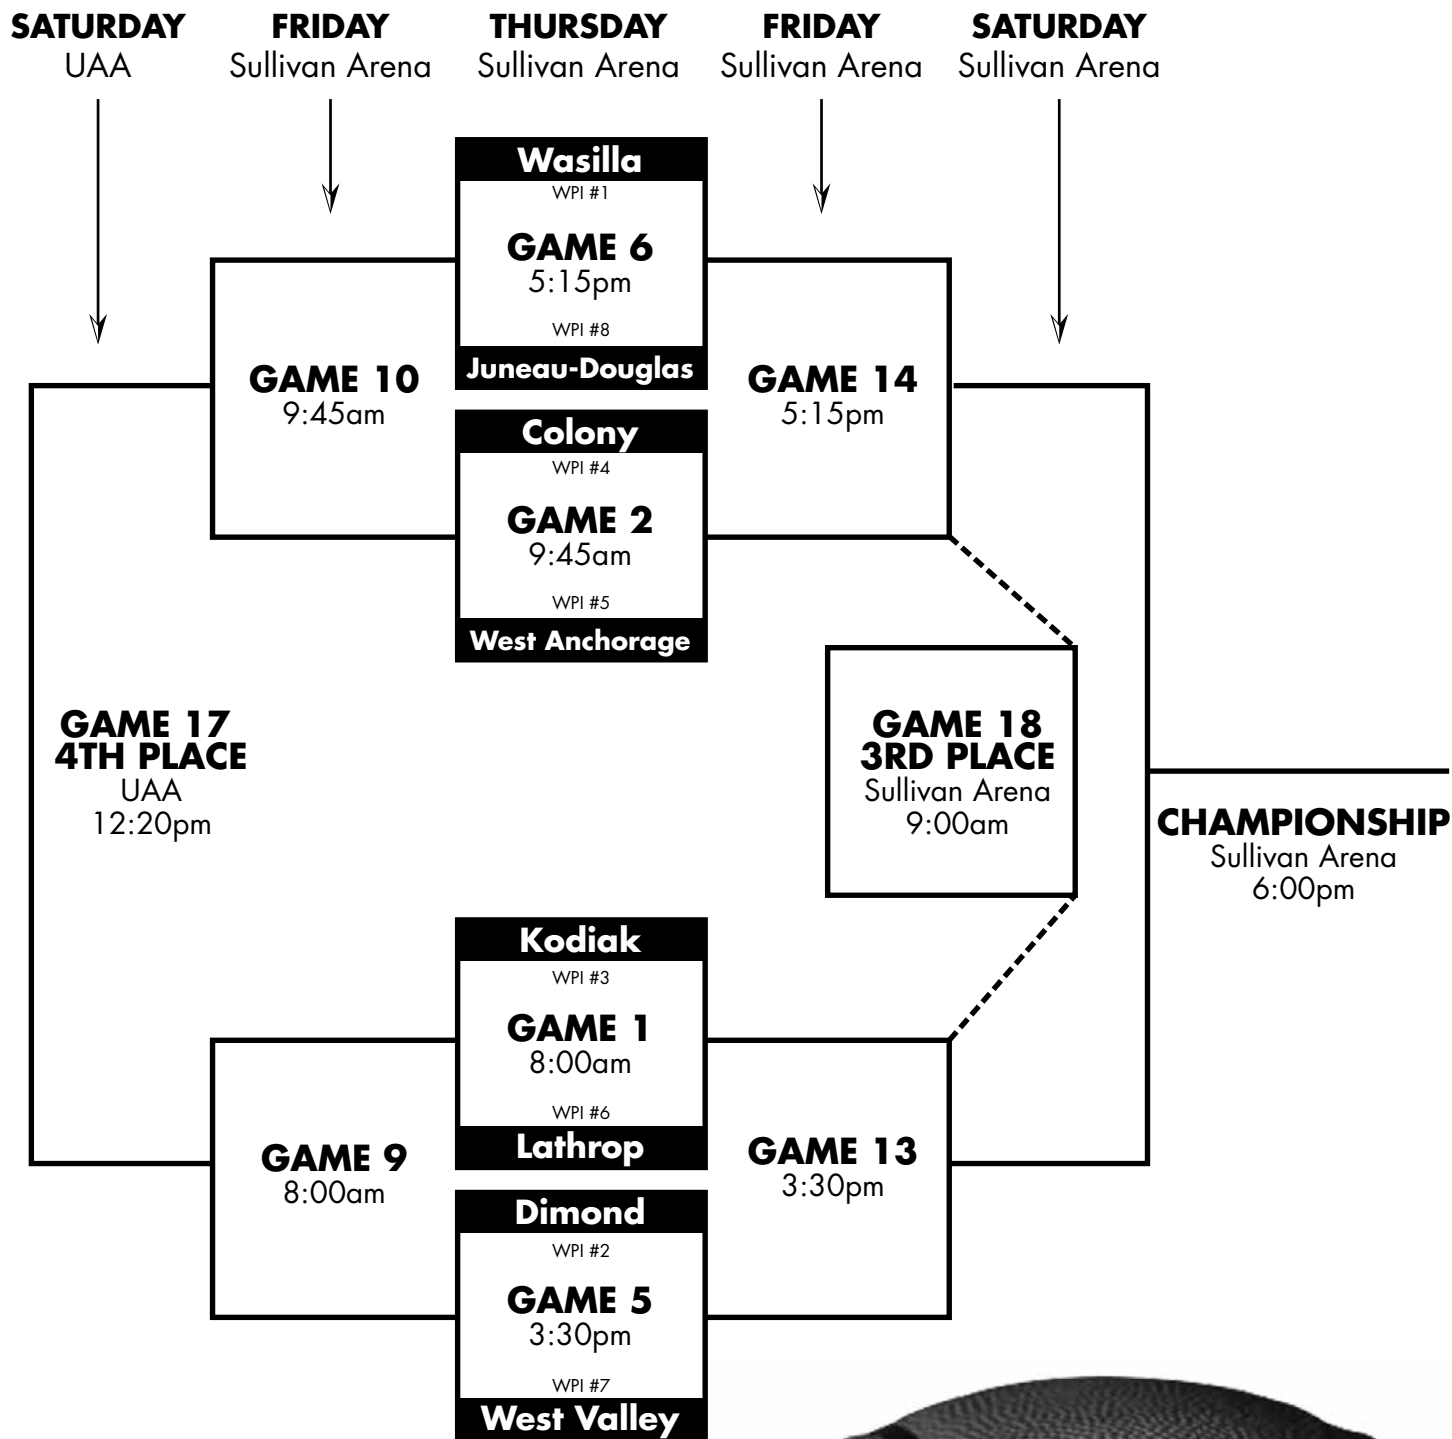

for," she said. "There's a lot of pushing and shoving in there, so you gotta be able to put it back up."

People may not know this, but girls basketball tends to be more physical than boys games.

Only the strong survive.

"You have to get mean," Dinkel said. "I find that I play a lot better and get more rebounds when I get a little angry."

MONROE GIRLS HOLD OFF SERVICE FOR STATE CROWN

March 1, 1987

By: Steve Turcotte

Anchorage Times Sports Writer

ANCHORAGE - The Monroe girls became the state's top basketball team, according to the pollsters, midway through this season. Saturday night, the Rams assured everyone they'd finish that way.

Led by Jeannie Hebert's 22 points, the Rams took care of Service, 59-51, to win the Class AAAA state championship at West High School.

It was only after the Kenai girls lost to Palmer halfway through the season that Monroe slipped into the top sport of the state's basketball poll. Saturday night was proof Monroe belonged there all along.

"The girls liked being No. 1," Monroe coach Debbie Carpenter said. "It made them play ever harder."

Monroe's state championship run was almost predictable, if you cared to look at its long run the No. 1 position.

But in Service's case, the Cougars weren't even supposed to get past the first round, much less make it to the final game. And amazingly, if not for a couple of costly turnovers, Service just might have won the championship.

Monroe lead, 50-47 with less than three minutes remaining in Saturday's game when, the Cougars had a chance to pull to within one. A bad pass gave the ball back to Monroe, however, and it ultimately proved to be the key play of the game.

Monroe spread its offense and run the clock down before Hebert was fouled with 1:47 left. She missed the front end of a one-and-one, however, Michelle Jewkes was there to convert the rebound for a 52-47 lead.

"That was a big spark for us," Herbert said. "It got everybody going."

Herbert stole the ensuing inbound pass and converted for a 54-47 lead with 1:30 left and the Rams had their championship.

"They did a good job converting our turnovers into points," said Service Coach Bob Ferguson, whose team won the state crown in 1985. "That play at the end though, really hurt us."

Service lead for the majority of the game, giving up the lead for good early in the third quarter but moving to within a point, 41-40, on a Ellie Ann Bridgeman (20 points) bucket with 7:45 left in the game. That was as close as the Cougars would get.

Hurting Service's chances was the early foul trouble of point guard Cassie Carlisle forcing her to sit the entire second quarter and most of the third. Dana Bennett, however, did a respectable job in Carlisle's absence running the offense.

MONROE DUMPS EAST, SETTLES THE NO. 1 QUESTION

February 7, 1988

By: Dave Thomas

Fairbanks Daily News Miner

FAIRBANKS - The Monroe Catholic Rams settled the question of "Who's No. 1" here Saturday night, topping the top ranked East Anchorage Thunderbirds 61-49 in the Class AAAA Girls State Basketball Tournament championship battle pitting No. 1 vs. No. 2.

The two teams, who had played to combined record of 47 wins and three losses between them entering the state title showdown, finished with the same number of losses. But it was Monroe who settled the season-long dispute over the top girls team in the state.

Prior to Saturday's game, the only defeat suffered by the 25-1 East T-birds was to Saturday night's opponent, Monroe, and one of two defeats handed to the 22-2 Monroe Rams was courtesy of the T-birds.

The Rams were the players smiling after Saturday's conquest in the West Valley gymnasium.

MONROE TOPS EAST TO CLAIM STATE TITLE

February 7, 1988

By: John Fridrich

Special to the Daily News

FAIRBANKS - East High girl's basketball Coach Bob Ferguson is one of the first people to acknowledge that Monroe has a great team. He'll also tell you his own T-bird team plays a pretty mean game of its own.

All Ferguson wanted was a fair chance for either team to prove it was a better in Saturday's Class AAAA state championship at West Valley High, but following his teams 61-49 loss, Ferguson, like several other coaches who have brought teams to Fairbanks in recent months, felt he was bucking a strong headwind.

"Ed Nash won a championship tonight," Ferguson said of ASAA director, who decided that only Fairbanks officials would work the large school tournament here. "The day he designated Fairbanks officials only, he designated the state championship."

In criticizing the refereeing, Ferguson emphasized his respect for the Rams, who successfully defended the state championship they won last year over a Ferguson-coached Service team.

"Monroe is a great team, and these kids here are great team, too," he said, motioning toward is disappointed players, "but the didn't decide the game."

Ferguson said his stat crew counted the calls of one official for a period of time, and 16 of 17 calls he made went against East.

"I think it's a very bad precedent to start," he said of allowing only officials from the tournament site to call the games.

A short distance away, Monroe Coach Debbie Carpenter struck a decidedly different note following the team's 23rd win in front of 1,200 spectators.

"The key thing is they tied the score up, but they never went ahead," she said of a third quarter East burst that tied the score at 37 all with 4:50 left in the period. "We ran off some points and they weren't able to regroup."

Monroe held a 42-39 advantage going into the final quarter when the Rams ran off eight unanswered points, including three fast break baskets, two of them off steals.

"It was (turning point in the game)," Ferguson said.

Monroe's Trudy Hebert who replaced starter Amnchorage Husson when she left the game with an ankle injury, made fast break layup baskets off passes from sister Jeanie and Tracie Hakdukovich, and Kristen McGilvary drove the length of the floor to put the Rams up 50-39.

Monique Alex, a key player for the T-birds on the inside fouled out a minute later, and despite some fine offensive play by Crickett Burleson who shared game high scoring honors with 21 points, East couldn't get any closer.

Both teams are highly regarded for their full-court presses, but neither proved consistently effective. "I knew if we took out time and didn't get nervous, we'd be okay," Carpenter said.

The disappointment of East's Holly Vannortwick, a senior who scored 10 points, was evident on her face, as well as in the expressions of her teammates, who completed a 25-2 season.

"After the game, everybody shared their feelings and stuff," she said. "You've got to look at like we're second in state."

Is your future

going up in smoke?

What if someone offered you a highly addictive, slow-death poison that made you look foolish and insecure? Would you even THINK about trying it?

Cigarette smoke is loaded with toxins and hundreds of harmful additives. It contains much higher levels of carbon monoxide than car exhaust! And the price an average pack-a-day smoker pays to feed their addiction to these toxins is about $300 a month!

If you are addicted to tobacco, it's never too late to quit. Please get help before your future goes up in smoke.

Tobacco is poison. For real.

"Traveling to tournaments far away from home coaches always worry about a player getting injured. This year at the Dimond Lady Lynx tournament one of my players went down with a pretty severe ankle injury. The professionalism and courtesy of the OPA staff took a lot of pressure off of me as a coach. Their willingness to look out for the well being of my player throughout the entire tournament was very much appreciated. I received text messages well after the fact checking on her and giving instructions for taking care of her. The Lady Kings community would like to thank the staff of the OPA for all they do for kids."

2013 PLAYER OF THE YEAR
ADAM KLIE, SERVICE

Klie a near unanimous pick for player of the year

By Van Williams
 Special Correspondent

When it comes to the best Class 4A boys basketball player in Alaska, there is Adam Klie of Service.

And then there is everybody else.

Klie's high-caliber play this season has helped distinguish him to be a class by himself. The 6-foot-3 has been the centerpiece of a 27-2 Service squad, averaging 19 points and 9 rebounds while shooting 70 percent on 2s and 44 percent on 3s.

"He is a well-rounded player and the heart of the team," Palmer coach Jason Marvel said.

Other coaches though the same thing as Klie was a near unanimous pick for Class 4A Boys Player of the Year in a vote by the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches.

"He is hands down the best player in the state in every aspect of the game," Wasilla coach Ryan Engebretsen said.

Said South coach Taylor Nerland: "He never gives up on any possession."

Klie is the first Service student to win player-of-the-year honors since Jeff Lentfer in 1991. It's a historic achievement that Klie vows will not change his modest approach to the state tournament.

After all, a state title is the ultimate prize.

"It's awesome to have that respect from the coaches, but really, the goal this year for me and my teammates is to win a state championship, and that's the way it's been since Day 1," he said. "Hopefully winning player of the year will be a side note."

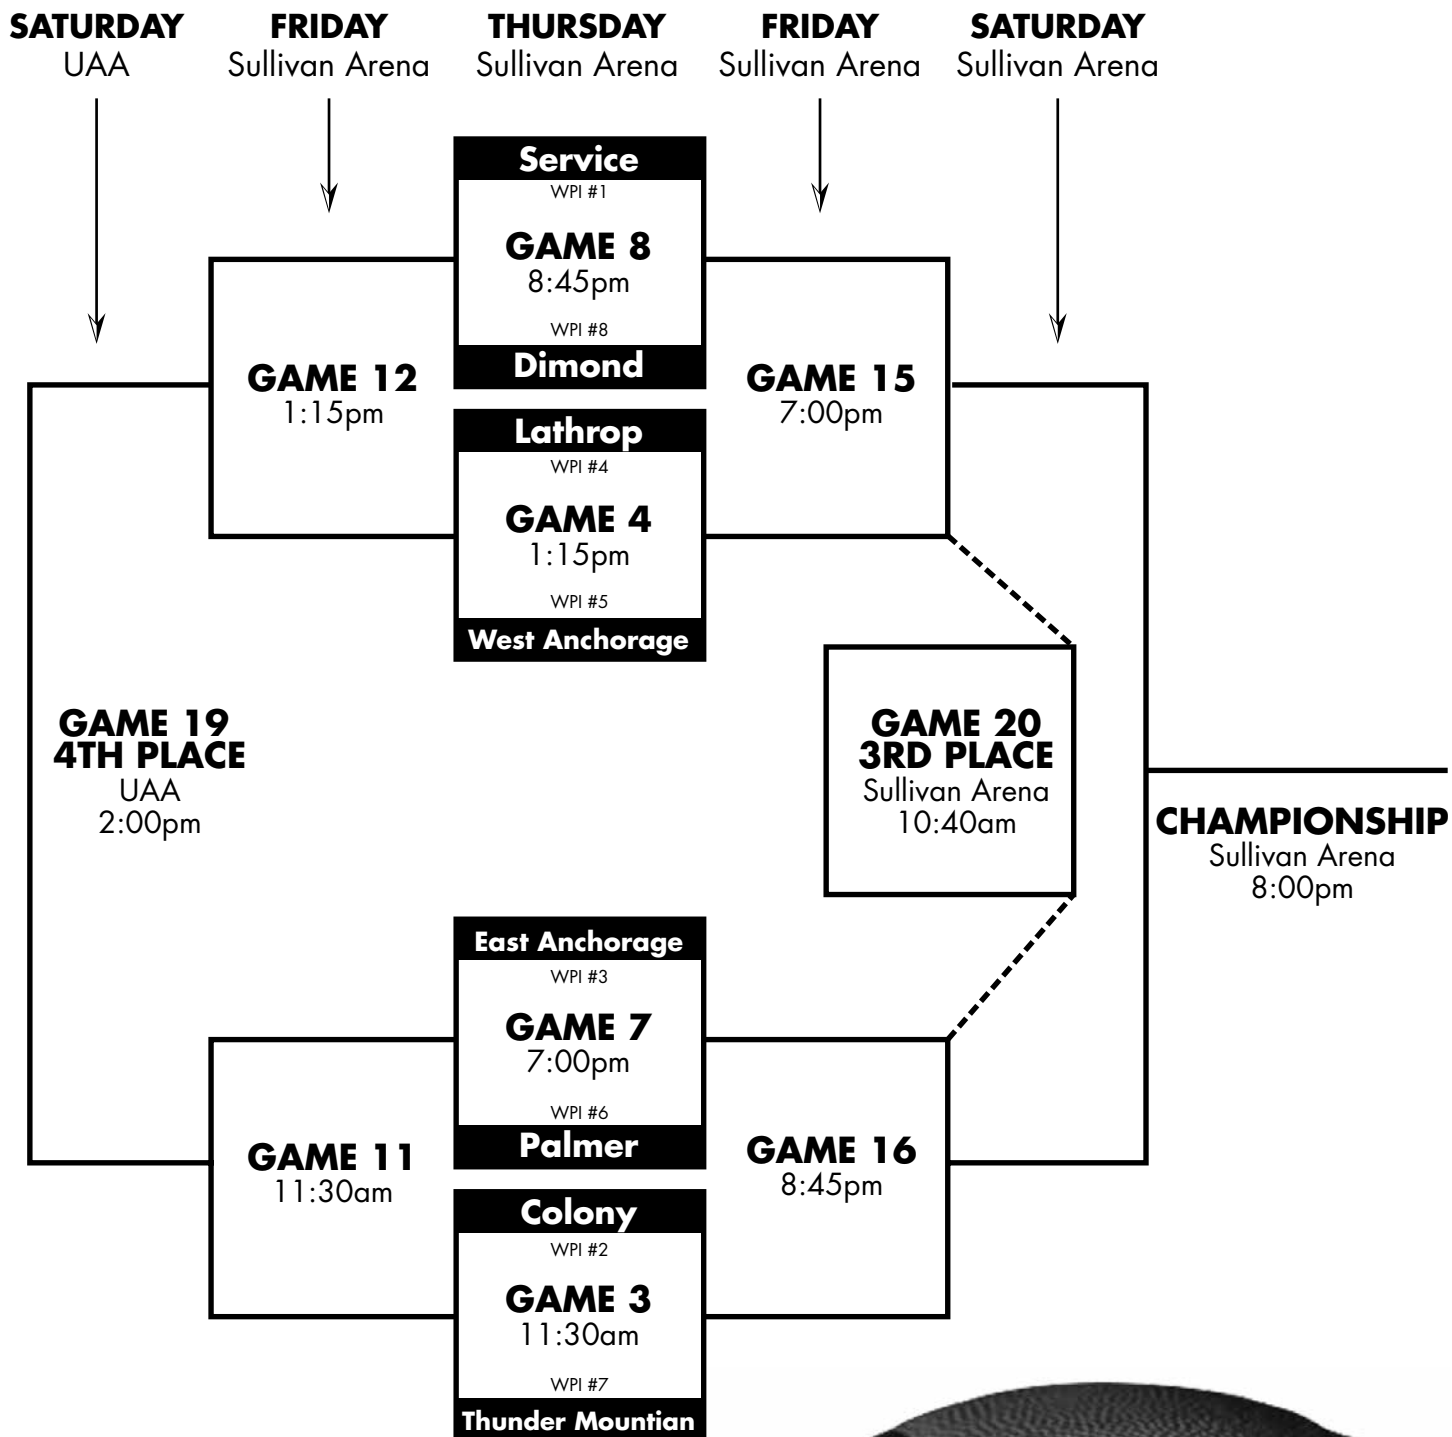

Service's Adam Klie and the Cougars are the favorites to cut down the nets at the state tournament. The senior playmaker was named Class 4A Boys Player of the Year by the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches, the first Service player to win the award in 22 years.

Plus, Service has been the team to beat all season so Klie is used to have a target on his back.

"Being the kind of kid that I am and the teammates I have, we don't get bogged down too much about what other people like to talk about us," he said. "We have to avoid getting that big head, and I think we will. It won't be a problem with this team. We'll keep at it and see if we can't be playing our best basketball come state tournament time."

Sponsor Thank You!

"I'd like to thank AC Company for their support of our annual Christmas program. We put together goodie bags for the kids and elders and the AC always donates items for those bags."

*Jim Dube
Bristol Bay Borough School District*

"As the volleyball coach of the Klawock HS team I am very thankful for the Klawock AC store. For the past several years the Manager Kathy has supported our volleyball fund raisers in countless ways. She and AC have provided food, space for bake sales, and come up with other ideas for us to make money such as donating pizzas to sell at our annual adult basketball tournament. It's nice to go into the store and have her ask how the team or the girls are doing. Also the Klawock AC hires many of our students to work in the store. They always allow our kids to take a week off to attend camp or big fund raisers. They cut back hours and work around sport practices for kids who work during the school year. The final 'wonderful thing' they do for our school and community is give 1% of all sales receipts collected and turned in the various nonprofit groups. They have helped many of our sport teams as well as our current drive to raise over $20,000 to purchase new playground equipment. Thank you AC for all your support!"

*Kelli Larson
Klawock Head Volleyball Coach*

"ASAA would like to thank First National Bank Alaska for being our title sponsor and supporting high school activities for 23 years. Also a special thank you for stepping up years ago helping provide financial stability at a critical time for ASAA. Thank you for all you do!"

*Gary Matthews
ASAA Executive Director*

"I appreciate FNBs long term sponsorship of ASAA events and the investment in Alaska's future. Activities have a strong correlation with future success for young people. It is truly an investment in human capital."

*Teresa Johnson
ASAA Student Services Director*

"Thank you First National Bank Alaska for placing students first! "

*Brian Freeman
North Slope School District*

Thanks!

"I would like to thank First National Bank Alaska employees who come help take gate admission at the First National Bowl. They are great to work with and do a wonderful job. Thank you FNB for your continued support of ASAA and high school activities."

*Isaiah Vreeman
ASAA State Championships Director*

WE'RE TEAMING UP!

Giving all Alaska students the opportunity to join in activities and reach their goals.

Thanks to our loyal customers and committed employees, ACC has grown to 35 retail stores throughout the state. Together with our meat processing plant, North Star Quality Meats, and our wholesale division, Pacific Alaska Wholesale, we strive to meet the food and merchandise needs of the communities we serve.

Sponsoring ASAA provides ACC with great opportunity to extend that same dedication to the youth of our villages.

Alaska Commercial Company, serving rural Alaska since 1867

March Madness Alaska

Let the 2013
