Welcome and Congratulations from the Anchorage School District

On behalf of the Anchorage School Board and the Anchorage School District, I want to welcome you to March Madness Alaska. We are very proud of all of the teams who are participating in this outstanding event. The Anchorage School District is delighted to be co-hosting this tournament for the sixteenth school year.

Over the next week, all of the teams will take over the basketball courts and do their very best in this tournament. At the end of the week, only one team in each category will stand at the top of the podium, but in my mind you are all winners for achieving a place in this state tournament! Working together as a team shows everyone in our state that our young people are great examples of the benefit of sports and other school activities. I want to personally thank all of the coaches, athletes, parents and family members, booster clubs, and community businesses and other sponsors who have supported these young people from all over the state during the 2013-2014 basketball season. We know that student activities benefit young people in many different ways, and are excellent preparation for their lives after high school whether they continue pursuing basketball and other activities or not. Through sports and other activities, our students learn life-long lessons of the value of physical fitness, ethics and honesty, perseverance, teamwork, and sportsmanship.

To all students, I challenge you to never give up on your grades, your sports and other activities, and your team spirit. I urge you to keep Norman Vaughan's motto in mind when you pursue excellence: "Dream big and dare to fail...You will never fail if you keep trying!" Congratulations and good luck; we are very proud of you!

Most sincerely,

Ed Graff

Sportsmanship Creed

"This contest is being played under the authority of the Alaska School Activities Association. ASAA rules provide for fair play and good sportsmanship among athletes and coaches. Since booing and jeering do not support anyone, we expect fans to be positive in supporting their favorite team with encouraging comments and cheers. Please refrain from words or actions that would reflect negatively on your school and team. In other words, BE A FAN—NOT A FANATIC."

2014 March Madness Tournament Dedicated to Dick Lobdell

ALASKA LOSES RADIO LEGEND WITH PASSING OF DICK LOBDELL

By Van Williams
ASAA correspondent

If you have ever listened to the radio in Alaska, there's a good chance you heard Dick Lobdell's voice. And chances are you never forgot him.

For those of us lucky enough to know the man behind the mic, Lobdell was as warm and as friendly as his dulcet voice.

For more than 40 years he worked the radio waves in Fairbanks and Anchorage, but now his voice has gone silent. Lobdell passed away over the weekend at Providence Alaska Medical Center. He was 76.

Lobdell was born June 27, 1937. His family came to Alaska in the early 1940s and he learned at an early age what he wanted to do. When he was 12 years old his parents found him under his bed making up a baseball game using his tape recorder.

His passion for broadcasting never faded.

In radio he wore many hats and handles, aka, Little Rockin' Richard, Big Country Richard and The Sheriff of Spenard. He thrived in talk radio and tackled all subjects from politics to plants.

As a sports broadcaster, he was Alaska's premier play-by-play announcer and worked with some of Alaska's premier teams over the years – the Fairbanks Goldpanners, Anchorage Northern Knights, UAA Seawolves and Anchorage Glacier Pilots.

He was at his best during baseball games, where the slower pace of the game allowed him time to weave stories in between pitches. He was our Vin Scully.

Lobdell was elected to the Alaska Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame in 1995.

He will be missed.

"Dick was a legend in terms of Alaska radio sports broadcasting, a character and a great human being, I so enjoyed listening to Dick do radio play-by-play - with that folksy style of his, he was a great story teller and could paint a picture with words so well that he even made those live-read ads interesting. I got to know Dick over the years as he did some basketball play-by-play for us here at UAA and later did public address for us. He had a great sense of humor and was kind and generous - one of those people you just wanted to spend time with. Alaska has lost an original and one of its best. My heart goes out to his family." – Tim McDiffett, UAA associate athletic director.

"Dick and I worked together during the late 80s and through the 90s on the radio at separate but joined stations. My career hit the toilet in the late 90s and I thought I was done with broadcasting forever. It was Dick who in 2001 cornered me in the halls telling me of his desire to retire but he couldn't find anyone whom he felt would do justice to his radio program until he thought about me. He lobbied Clear Channel to place me where I am today to take over for him and it was his belief that dragged my stalled radio career out of the sewer and placed me into the position that grew into what it is today. I will always have a fond place in my heart for that man for what he did for me and simply, the great guy he was to everyone." – Rick Rydell, radio host.

"I met him in 1982 when he asked me to help him do Glacier Pilots games. He later got me into basketball. He's the 'Godfather' of the Alaska Sports Broadcasting Network; started it with myself and Brad Lauwers. The owner of the Anchorage Knights asked him to keep the night's cash box between his legs at courtside because the IRS was in the building. He was known for saying 'At bat is Joe Hidavitchkey. For those sports writers out their listening he spells his name J-O-E.'" – Kelly Thompson, sports broadcaster,

"My first games 20 years ago were with Dick Lobdell at West High School, broadcasting Crimson Bear basketball games back to Juneau. I remember how smooth he was on the air. He made it look so easy. We had no doubt that he could have excelled at the pro level like a Vin Scully if that was the path he had chosen. I'll never forget doing a UAA game with him from Kentucky's Rupp Arena. He introduced me to Kelly Thompson and we started the Alaska Sports Broadcasting Network. To us, he was always 'The Consultant' - the wise source we would always seek out before making our next move. He often provided feedback on our broadcasts, mostly of a positive nature. He knew everyone in the media from Fairbanks to Juneau. People would ask about him all the time. He was a role model that was the dominant force and pioneer in Alaska sports broadcasting." – Brad Lauwers, sports broadcaster.

"I remember what everybody else in our fantasy football league remembered most about Dick on draft day. He would always give the same lead in to picking some burned out player with 'Mock me now, praise me later.' I would drive him crazy with calls during the week with pickups and drops not to mention last-minute lineup changers 5 minutes before pickups. I'm sure I am the reason he resigned as commissioner. He had the best laugh of anyone I know. To this day when I talk about fantasy football I refer to the Yukon League as Lobdell's League. Miss him a lot." – Marcus Lewis, aka, Marcus in the Morning, radio host.

"I started in radio in Alaska in 1983 when John Davis hired me at KSRM in Soldotna/Kenai. It didn't take long to learn that 'the guy' in sports broadcasting in the state was Dick Lobdell. Listening to Anchorage stations when I had the opportunity gave me chance to hear what Dick was famous for - delivering a story while still maintaining the play-by-play account of the game. Difficult to do with basketball and hockey, but he was able to do it, more manageable with football, but perfect for baseball, and that where I feel Dick Lobdell made the biggest impression on me. Dick had the gift of making the listener feel comfortable, like he was telling the story directly to them, yet at the same time never making them feel like they were missing any part of the game. When I moved to Anchorage in 1996 to become the voice of UAA Seawolves basketball and hockey along with the morning show on KBYR, he was one of the first to contact me and offer his congratulations and whatever help I needed. Certainly a nice gesture, but that was Dick, a big man with a bigger heart." – Kurt Haider, sports broadcaster.

"He was a legend in every sense of the word. He had a passion for storytelling and a sense of humor to go along with it. He took great pride in getting information and crafting a radio broadcast that left you glued to the radio dial." – Jon Dyson, Glacier Pilots general manager.

"Dick had a silky smooth radio voice – one that really made it seem like you had a friend in your ear calling the game. He was extremely congenial and always made me feel comfortable despite my lack of experience back then. He was a true Alaska sports and radio legend, and I will miss his warmth and sense of humor as well." – Nate Sagan, UAA sports information director.

NIANIELLA DORVALL, NIKOLAEVSK

Nikolaevsk senior named top 1A girls player

By JEREMIAH BARTZ
Frontiersman.com

As a 6-foot-1 center in the 1A girls class, Nianiella Dorvall could probably easily dominate the basketball and the scoring column. But there's more to the game of the Nikolaevsk standout, her head coach Bea Klaich said recently.

"She's an incredible team player. She could be dominating. She could be a one-dimensional player, but she's an incredible team player," Klaich said.

But Klaich is not the coach who understands Dorvall's talents. The Nikolaevsk senior has been named the Alaska Roof Coatings/AABC 1A Girls State Player of the Year.

Klaich used the Los Angeles Lakers big man Pau Gasol as a way to describe Dorvall's talents. Klaich said she's not just a big athlete a coach sticks inside the paint.

"She's got great post moves, great finesse. She can easily hit 15, 18-footers," Klaich said. "She's difficult to guard."

Dorvall is averaging a double-double for Klaich's squad, which just recently won a Peninsula Conference title. The senior is averaging 12.8 points and just about 10 rebounds per game. But that's not all Dorvall can do. She has also has 64 assists, 47 steals and 41 blocks in 22 games.

"She's been double and triple-teamed all season," Klaich said. "She's a great passer. When she's double-teamed, it opens up the guards."

A player with a different mentality, but with her talents, could easily hold on to the basketball and finish with the 20 or 30 points in a game.

"If she wanted to, she could," Klaich said. "She's very unselfish. In 1A basketball size really makes a difference. Size can be very imposing."

Klaich joked that she sometimes wishes Dorvall a little more selfish sometimes, but continued to praise Dorvall's character.

"She's the nicest girl. She's very kind, not mean spirited," Klaich said.

Klaich has been coaching Dorvall since she was a third-grader and Dorvall has been a part of her high school team since she was an eighth-grader. Klaich said ASAA began allowing 1A programs to use eighth-graders when Dorvall hit the eighth grade.

"It wasn't for that, we wouldn't have had a team that year. We had three eighth-graders that year," Klaich said.

Dorvall started as an eighth-grader, and has been a staple of the program ever since.

Klaich said Dorvall also excels in the classroom. The senior maintains a 4.0 grade point average and plans to pursue a career in medicine.

PERSONAL AND BUSINESS PLANNING

Teamwork provides perfect backdrop for working at home in Alaska

I was born and raised in Alaska, and have come to appreciate the amazing natural beauty of the 49th state.

As a high school student, my future was just as uncertain as anyone else, but participation in ASAA activities helped point me in the right direction.

Teamwork, camaraderie, and dedication were valuable skills I learned through participation in East High School's tennis team.

Today, as a Guest Services Supervisor, I put those skills to use everyday. I'm proud to work for a company who sponsors ASAA, and their investment in the future of Alaska's youth.

2014 COACH OF THE YEAR
BRENT HOSTETTER, NOATAK

2014 PLAYER OF THE YEAR
TYRUS MORGAN, KLAWORD

Klawock standout named 1A player of the year

By JEREMIAH BARTZ
Frontiersman.com

Klawock head coach Doug Edenshaw describes Tyrus Morgan as a humble kid. The Klawock senior has humility, but that doesn't mean he's not prone to shine.

Morgan dazzled Chieftains fans on the team's senior night with a dozen slam dunks. He posted a triple-double that night, finishing with 30 points, 15 rebounds and 11 assists. It was a nice farewell to the home fans for a small forward who has been a staple in the Klawock School program since he was an eighth-grader. But his work on the court is far from done. Edenshaw sees Morgan as a legitimate college basketball prospect. Alaska coaches see him as the best player at the 1A level. Morgan has been named the Alaska Roof Coatings/AABC 1A Player of the Year. Morgan, the centerpiece of Klawock's 2013 1A title winning team, may be the best player in 1A, but Edenshaw believes Morgan could hold his own at any level in the state.

"I've seen a lot of 4A players, some players who have been at the tournament in Ketchikan," Edenshaw said, referring to the annual Clark Cochran Classic. "He's got a lot more talent than some of the 4A players I've seen. We're fortunate to have him down here."

The 6-foot-4 small forward is averaging 24 points, 14 rebounds and six assists a game this season.

"He's got a great work ethic and it's amazing to see this young man work so hard to get to the level he's at," Edenshaw said.

Edenshaw said Morgan can make an impact in a variety of ways.

"He's just an all-around player. He's got eyeballs that go everywhere. He sees everything and makes the right moves on defense," Edenshaw said.

On the other side of the floor, Edenshaw said Morgan can hurt opponents in different ways. "He can finish around the bucket. He can shoot outside," Edenshaw said.

Morgan finished as the runner-up for the player of the year award last season. This is the second straight year that Morgan has been named first-team all-state.

Dillingham standout repeats as player of the year

By JEREMIAH BARTZ
 Frontiersman.com

When Drew Carlos earned 2A player of the year honors toward the end of her junior season, the Dillingham standout was certainly flattered. Carlos was the first Wolverine in school history to win the prize. As she moved into her senior year, repeating as the top player wasn't at the top of the priority list.

It was business as usual for Carlos. She, once again, led Dillingham to the state tournament. And along the way, Carlos joined a select group of Alaska athletes

Carlos has been named the Alaska Roof Coatings/AABC 2A Girls State Player of the Year for the 2013-14 season. Carlos is the first player since Skagway's Rose Fracker (2008 and 2009) to be named the top 2A girls player in back-to-back years. She is only the third 2A girls player to earn the award multiple times.

"It's a great honor. I think she'll be tickled, but that wasn't her goal coming into the season, or even during the season," said Sean Carlos, Dillingham's head coach and Drew's dad.

Sean Carlos said there were no expectations of repeating.

"Two times, that's a hard one. It's a tough thing to repeat in my opinion," Sean Carlos said. "There's so many players out there. Being out remote you don't get the exposure that some kids on the road system do."

Drew Carlos averages about 20 points per game for a Dillingham squad that recently won the Southwest Conference title earned its spot on the 2A state bracket. Sean Carlos said Drew has the potential to score 30 on any given night, but understands the big picture, success as a team.

"She doesn't care if she's scoring 30, or if she's scoring 20 and someone else is scoring the other 10," Sean Carlos said. "She's a good team player. When she scores 10 or 20, she's going to create offense. Somebody is going to score."

Dillingham can use the 5-foot-9 senior all over the floor. When Drew posts up, she's a good rebounder, Sean said. She's also a very good three-point shooter, who can handle the ball and see the court well.

"She does exceptionally well on the open floor," Sean Carlos said. "She's pretty versatile."

This is Carlos' second season at Dillingham. Last year she helped the Wolverines advanced to the 2A state title game. Craig edged Dillingham 31-29.

Before the Carlos family moved to Dillingham prior to her junior year, Drew Carlos helped lead Togiak to the state tournament as a sophomore.

Serious injuries suffered as a plane crash spectator have not slowed Unalakleet standout

By JEREMIAH BARTZ
Frontiersman.com

As the son of the basketball coach, Gage Ivanoff has spent his life on the hardwood. Long before Ivanoff reached the high school level, he stood side-by-side with his father, as his dad's, "little assistant."

Ivanoff has evolved into one of the top players and leading scorers of the 2A class. The Unalakleet standout is one of five players named to the first team of the Alaska Roof Coatings/AABC 2A Boys All-State Basketball Team.

But there was a time in which Ivanoff was forced to put his basketball career on hold. While on a trip to Reno, Nev., with family, Ivanoff suffered serious injuries as a spectator of a plane crash during the Reno Air Races, Sept. 16, 2011.

According to news reports, a North American P-51D Mustang named The Galloping Ghost, a plane flown by pilot James Leeward, crashed into the crowd. The pilot and 10 spectators died. Ivanoff was one of 69 injured, Ivanoff's father, Steve Ivanoff said recently.

"We were going crazy wondering what happened," Steve Ivanoff recalled of the incident. Steve was home in Alaska, while Gage made the trip with relatives.

"Six hours of not knowing how he was," Steve said. "It was crazy."

Gage, watching from the box seats during the air show, was struck by debris from the crash. He was hospitalized with a scarred kidney and bruised lung.

"He was really fortunate to have left the crash," Ivanoff said of his son, who was 15 at the time.

The recovery slowed his progress. Gage spent multiple days in the hospital, and it took time to recover from his injuries.

But Gage is back on the floor. He's among the top scorers at the 2A level, averaging about 20 points per game. He also helped his team advance to the 2A state tournament.

"We had to back off, but we're making up for lost time now," Steve said.

Steve said Gage has developed into a player who scores in a variety of ways. He's a quality shooter, and at 6-foot-2, Unalakleet can use Gage in the paint as well. Steve said Gage has, "good hops," and dunks the ball with ease.

Unalakleet has played a demanding schedule, Steve said. The team has played 4A schools such as Kodiak and Soldotna, and 3A programs like Bethel, Nome and Kotzebue.

"The big schools, they're focused on him," Steve said of Game.

Despite all the attention from opposing defense, Gage continues to have success, Steve said. Gage also leads the team in rebounds and blocked shots.

Last season, he was named all-tournament after helping lead his team to a fourth-place finish in the 2A state tournament.

ACS senior enters tourney shooting for state title, 2,000 career points

By JEREMIAH BARTZ
Frontiersman.com

ANCHORAGE — Dallas Dickerson has stood out during her four years with the Anchorage Christian School varsity team. But her time with the Lions started well before she entered the ninth grade.

Dickerson's connection with the program dates back as early as the fifth grade. Now a senior Dickerson is among the most prolific scorers in the state at any level, and has been named the Alaska Roof Coatings/AABC 3A Girls Player of the Year.

"She was kind of on the radar as a fifth-grader," ACS head coach Darrin Powers said recently. "In a spring league, we didn't have enough players. She played as a fifth-grader on (junior varsity). A fifth-grader, she was the best player."

Today, the point guard, who can also play shooting guard, is within reach of the 2,000-point mark for her career, a milestone most shooters can only dream of. Dickerson enters the 2014 3A girls state tournament with 1,949 career points, leaving her 51 away from the 2,000-point mark.

During the regular season, Dickerson averaged 22.2 points per game. She kept on that pace with 22.6 points per game during the Southcentral Conference Championships in Cordova, en route to leading her team to the conference crown. Powers said Dickerson's ability to score against the team's toughest competition of the season is impressive. Dickerson netted 26 points against Kodiak, the top 4A team in the state. She finished with 27 against Colony, a 4A state tournament qualifier. Her season-high of 29 came against 4A Chugiak.

"Whatever we need, that's what she's going to give us. She's always been that way," Powers said.

Powers, Dickerson's head coach throughout her four-year career, said the senior can score in a variety of ways. She's good in transition, Powers said, and has a knack for finding high-percentage shots.

"She's so good in the open floor," Powers said. Dickerson came off the bench in her first career game, Powers said, and scored 17. She's been a starter at ACS ever since.

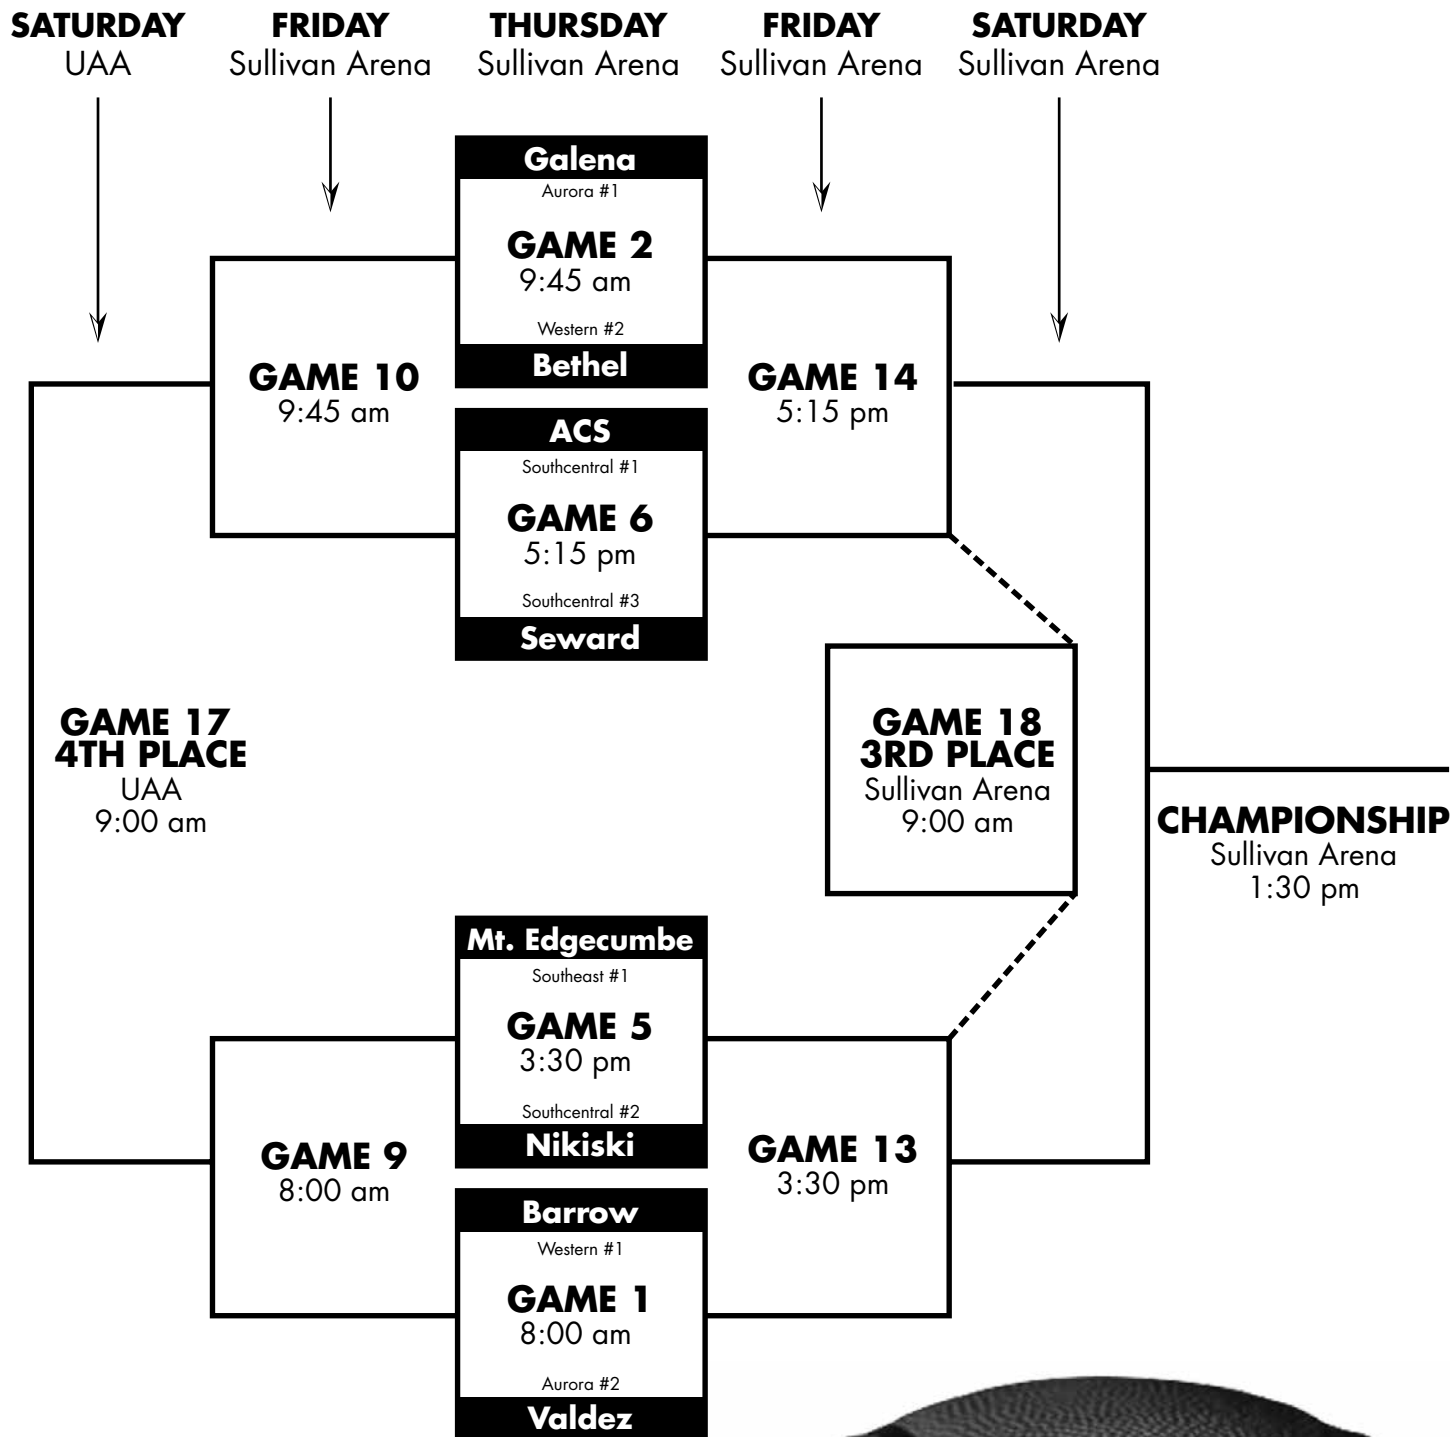

Powers said Dickerson also does much of her work in three quarters. The Lions have been successful enough to rest standouts during the final period.

"She does all of this in basically three quarters," Powers said.

Powers also praised Dickerson's efforts off the court. Dickerson maintains a 3.85 grade point average, and is a regular volunteer in community organizations.

Bethel senior hits 1,500 points for career, earns all-state honors

By JEREMIAH BARTZ
Frontiersman.com

Theodore Naneng is among the top players in the deepest pool of talent Alaska 3A basketball fans have seen in years. But when it comes to scoring on the basketball court, the Bethel senior has entered a league of his own.

In late February, during a win over Kotzebue, Naneng scored the 1,500th point of his high school career.

"I don't know if there is another boy in the state right now who has scored that many points in their career," Bethel head coach Dave Cronk said recently. "It's a huge accomplishment."

Naneng is one of five players selected to the first team of the Alaska Roof Coatings/AABC 3A Boys All-State Basketball Squad. Naneng is joined by Monroe Catholic's Scooter Bynum, Anchorage Christian's Calvin Hoffman, Nome's Tyle Eide and Monroe's David Stepovich on the first team. Bynum, Monroe's all-around talent, finished just ahead of Naneng in the voting, and was named the Alaska Roof Coatings/AABC 3A Boys Player of the Year. Longtime Grace Christian head coach Chuck Boerger, who will hang up his whistle and retire from coaching after the state tournament, was named the 3A coach of the year.

Before Naneng was officially tabbed as a first-team all-state player, the Bethel senior was putting his stamp on school history. Cronk said he believes nobody has ever scored more while wearing a Warrior uniform.

"I asked our (activities director Billy Strickland). He's been here forever. He couldn't recall that ever happening before," Cronk said of a Bethel player hitting the 1,500-point milestone. "He's a four-year starter for us. He's been a big part of our program for four years, a big part of the success we've had."

Naneng recently led the Warriors to their second conference title. He was also named most valuable player in his conference.

Cronk said Naneng lines up at the small forward position, but plays like a guard.

"We don't have any real big kids. We run about four guards and one kind-of big guy," Cronk said.

But regardless of position, Cronk said the 6-foot-1 Naneng will do whatever the team needs him to do.

Naneng scored 27 points to help Bethel beat Nome in the conference title game recently.

"He comes up big when we need him to," Cronk said. "We get him the ball in the middle, he makes things happen. We can't get him in the middle, he pops out and gets the ball on the perimeter. He scores inside and out, defends well and rebounds well."

*Sandi Wagner
Juneau-Douglas School District Athletic & Activities Director*

"A few years ago our girl's basketball team was up in Fairbanks playing in the Lathrop Christmas Basketball Tournament. Saturday it started raining and freezing very hard. The troopers closed down the Parks Highway because of very dangerous conditions. Parents were very concerned about getting their girls home for Christmas. On Sunday we woke up and the weather didn't change so our parents called Alaska Airlines to see if we could get a flight back home for the holidays. Not only did they get seats at a discounted price for all of our girls, they brought up a whole plane because at Christmas there were no seats available on the normally scheduled flights. Thanks you Alaska Airlines for your support of ASAA and all out teams no matter what their circumstance."

*Norman Bouchard
Houston Jr./Sr. High School Athletic Director*

"I'd like to send out an accolade to Alaska Airlines, and specifically the customer service agents that work the Group Desk. Time is never an issue for them, they'll spend as much time as you need with them in order to get something accomplished. They're always up beat and fun to talk to, and provide great customer service!"

*Ed Klein
Ketchikan High School Activities Director*

Kodiak point guard named first-team all-state

By JEREMIAH BARTZ
 Frontiersman.com

When Amy Fogle's Kodiak Bears squad won the 2001 state title, she had a lightning fast point guard, Geoffrey Agmata, who helped lead the Bears to the 4A boys championship.

Fogle is now the head coach of the Kodiak girls squad. And it's not until now that Fogle has run across another point guard who displays that type of speed and skill.

This year, as Fogle has watched senior point guard Jerica Nelson lead the undefeated Bears into the state tournament, Fogle can't help but compare her to Agmata.

"I've had one other great point guard," Fogle said, in reference to Agmata. "He just did some amazing things. I've been watching a little film on him. (Jerica is) just so similar to Geoffrey. Unfortunate for him, he didn't have much size. She doesn't either, but it doesn't affect her as much in the girls game. The quickness is just amazing."

The 5-foot-4 Nelson is one of five players who have been named to the first team of the Alaska Roof Coatings/AABC 4A Girls All-State Basketball Team. The Kodiak senior joins West Anchorage's Chanel Bookert, West Valley's Ruthy Hebard, Dimond's Tara Thompson and Kodiak teammate Hannah Wandersee on the first team. Bookert is the 2014 player of the year, finishing just ahead of Nelson in the voting.

Nelson recently helped lead Kodiak to its first Northern Lights Conference title since 1985. Entering the tournament, Nelson was averaging 11 points, four assists, four steals and two rebounds per game. But Nelson's impact on the court goes far beyond the statistics.

"She's just a true point guard," said Fogle, who was named the 2014 coach of the year. "Her quickness is just amazing. She plays defense. She can get inside and play with the big ones. She can get outside and hit a jump shot. She's been a total pleasure to coach all year."

JUST FIX CDQ

Alaskans Strive For Equality

The 27,000+ Alaskan residents of the 65 participating CDQ communities, who are mostly Alaskan Natives, each deserve to be treated equally.

We must all equally unite as one.

To get there, we need the United States Congress to Just Fix CDQ.

CDQ Quota Imbalances

The current allocations are based on politics.
CDQ allocations should be based on population.

Groups	Resi- dents	% of Popula- tion	Imbalanced CDQ allocation results in 2012
Coastal Villages	9,353	34%	-$10,598,119
Norton Sound	8,583	31%	-$9,576,363
Bristol Bay	5,219	19%	+$1,161,286
Yukon Delta	3,304	12%	+$2,534,406
Central Bering Sea	461	2%	+$5,344,644
Aleutian Pribilof Islands	427	2%	+$11,134,147

More than $16 million went to 888 residents instead of the majority of the CDQ population because of the imbalanced CDQ allocations.

Is your future

going up in smoke?

What if someone offered you a highly addictive, slow-death poison that made you look foolish and insecure? Would you even THINK about trying it?

Cigarette smoke is loaded with toxins and hundreds of harmful additives. It contains much higher levels of carbon monoxide than car exhaust! And the price an average pack-a-day smoker pays to feed their addiction to these toxins is about $300 a month!

If you are addicted to tobacco, it's never too late to quit. Please get help before your future goes up in smoke.

Their willingness to look out for the well being of my player throughout the entire tournament was very much appreciated. ## UAA recruit among players on 4A first-team all-state squad

By JEREMIAH BARTZ
Frontiersman.com

Colony senior Damien Fulp is making his third straight trip with the Knights to the state tournament in Anchorage. But even though this is the final weekend of Fulp's high school career, this won't be the last time Anchorage fans see the 6-foot-1 standout guard. Next year, Fulp will be wearing a different shade of green as a member of the UAA men's basketball team.

The UAA-recruit is one of five players selected to the first team of the Alaska Roof Coatings/AABC All-State Basketball Team. Fulp joins Service's Reece Robinson, West Valley's Travon Brackett, East's Desmond Johnson and West's Deandre Wilson on the first team. Robinson is the Alaska Roof Coatings/AABC All-State Basketball 4A Boys Player of the Year, edging Fulp for the honor.

As Fulp was preparing for the start of his senior season, he was finalizing his plans for the next level of basketball, inking his National Letter of Intent to play for the Seawolves in November of 2013.

Colony head coach Tom Berg said it was a great move for Fulp and great addition for the Seawolves. When looking at the positives and negatives, Berg said Fulp really couldn't find much, if anything at all, that was negative.

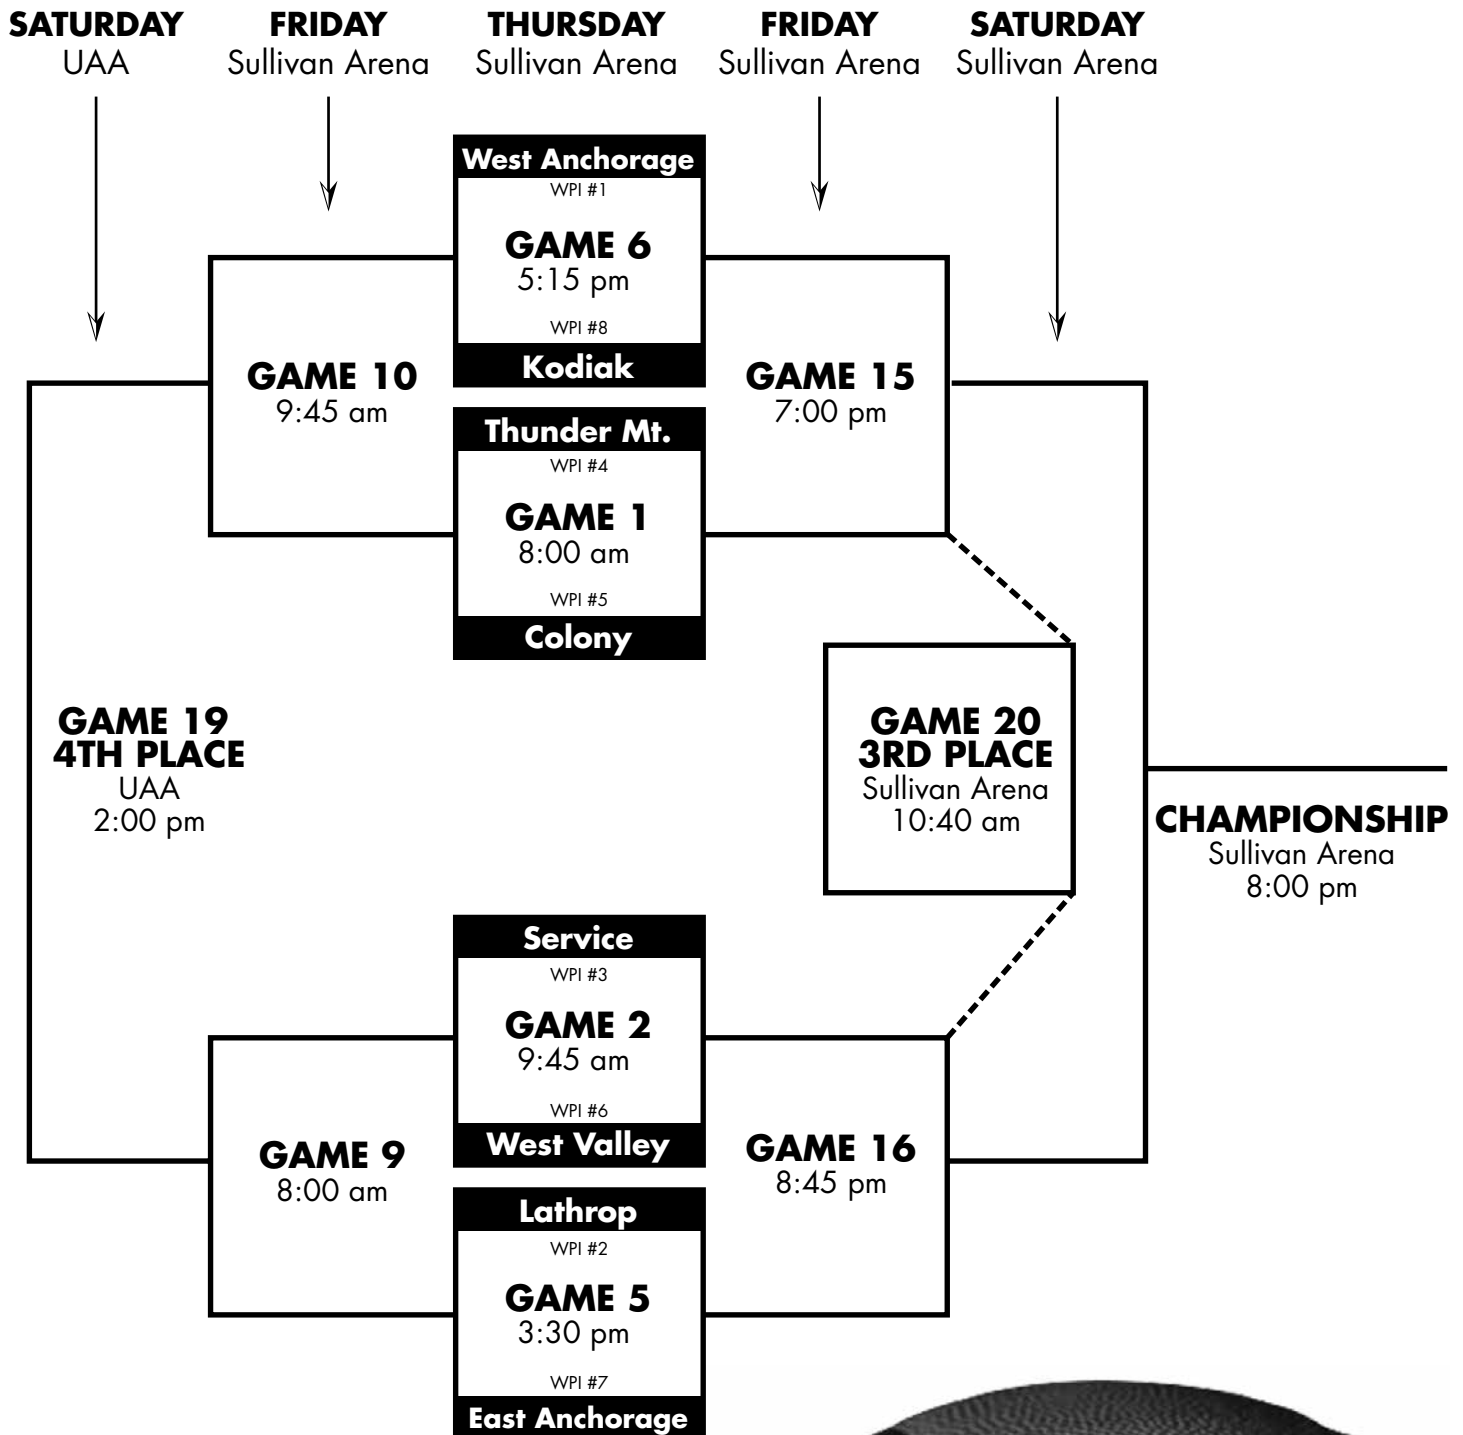

"When we sat down and looked, there weren't many cons," Berg said recently. "We sat down, and said, what's good about it? Style of play, excitement for the new arena, the opportunity to play right away, the opportunity to train without having to worry about flying down to get someplace. In the spring, when they're having their workouts, he can get into Anchorage and really get after it."

Fulp was recently named the Northern Lights Conference Player of the Year for the second straight season. Fulp is averaging just about a dozen points for the Knights, the 2014 NLC runner-up. He's also among team leaders in assists and steals, and is viewed as a top three-point threat in the conference.

WE'RE TEAMING UP!

Giving all Alaska students the opportunity to join in activities and reach their goals.

Thanks to our loyal customers and committed employees, ACC has grown to 35 retail stores throughout the state. Together with our meat processing plant, North Star Quality Meats, and our wholesale division, Pacific Alaska Wholesale, we strive to meet the food and merchandise needs of the communities we serve.

Sponsoring ASAA provides ACC with great opportunity to extend that same dedication to the youth of our villages.
